THE INTEREST OF AMERICANS IS PARAMOUNT

President Roosevelt's Views of Our Colonial Policy in West Indies and Philippines. Their Good Also Served.

THREE STATES HEAR HIS PATRIOTIC TALK

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Augusta, Me., Aug. 26.—President Roosevelt traveled today from the capital of Massachusetts through a corner of New Hampshire to the capital of Maine. This evening he is the guest here of Gov. Hill. He spoke in half a dozen towns an was received everywhere by great and enthusiastic audiences.

The president left Boston at 8:35 o'clock. On the run to Lowell, Mass., the towns of West Melford, Winchester and North Billerica turned out great crowds and gave a rousing cheer as the train passed by. At each place the president appeared on the platform and acknowledged the greetings. Acting Mayor William E. Badger and a committee of the city government met the president and party at the station and were presented by Charles H. Allen, former governor of Porto Rico. The president was driven to the city common, where he delivered an address.

Interests in the West Indies.

In the course of his talk the president said:

When I got off the train this morning one of the first to greet me was ex-Gov. Allen of Porto Rico, my fellow townsman. (Applause.) You don't hear much about our government of Porto Rico, because there is nothing sensational in a complete success. (Laughter and applause.) Under Gov. Allen and since, under his successor, Porto Rico has been governed so well that it is not entitled to any space in the newspapers. (Laughter.)

We have done our full duty by Porto Rico. We have done our duty by Cuba. But I want to ask this people to act further than under a sense of bare duty, to act in a spirit of generosity such as befits a great republic in dealing with a new and weaker republic which itself has started on the career of important self-government. And I want furthermore that our people should be awake to their own interest in the seas and islands south of our country. We drove out those who had been oppressing Cuba and we cleaned house for them. Not an easy task, for many of those cities had never before been cleaned in their entire history. We introduced a school system. We made justice in fact as well as in name. We stamped out the plague of yellow fever, a plague which was a menace, not merely to Cuba, but to our own southern states, and then we left them independent.

Must Look After Cuba.

But from the very necessities of the case we are bound to have intimate relations with them. Cuba has got to be, in a sense, part of our international political system, and I ask most earnestly that in return we make her part of our economic system by establishing reciprocal trade relations with her. (Applause and cries of "right.")

I ask it in her interest and I ask it in ours. There is a great market in Cuba, and I wish to see it controlled in the interest of our own people. I am speaking in one of the oldest industrial centers of this country and one of the places in which modern industrialism in America took its rise. I am speaking in a place which, in addition to being an industrial center, has always been willing to devote its best blood and its effort on behalf of any moral question that touched the consciences of its citizens.

We did well in Porto Rico. That was because we could count on the services of men like Gov. Allen, services which should be both interested and intelligent; mind you, both. You have got to have morality first, but if morality has not got common sense with it, the result will be unhappy. And now, in dealing with Cuba, in dealing with the isthmus across which we shall now to build the great interoceanic canal, we must remember that we can do good with ourselves permanently only if we do good to those with whom we are brought in contact; that we must keep both faces well filled. We must look to our own interests, as well as the interests of the weaker peoples whose destiny is now inextricably interwoven with ours. I ask you, then, to see to it that we give Cuba reciprocity with this country, not only for her own interests, but also for our own great benefit.

Work Done in the Philippines.

At Lawrence the president spoke from a temporary stand near the station. His remarks were local and patriotic. He touched briefly on the Philippines, saying:

In the Philippines our soldiers have fought and won. To do what? To leave the country and establish the rule of civil authority under the American flag. We have brought peace to the islands. They are better off than ever before. Never in their history has each man had, as he has now, such a good chance for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. You have brought self-government, individual freedom to the Filipinos of a kind that they could have never known under an anarchic tyranny of their own. We will govern them primarily in their interests, but in our interest also. Whether we will or not, we as a nation front a great destiny. We can decide whether we will do our work badly or well, but we cannot help doing it. We have got to do it somehow and I ask that all men stand shoulder to shoulder as Americans to see that they do it well.

At Haverhill, the home of Secretary Moody, the president talked about the navy for 20 minutes. Returning to the station, the president took leave of Secretary of the Navy Moody and Senator Lodge, who remained in this city.

A Touch of New Hampshire.

For the first time in the history of Dover, N. H., which was founded in 1632, a president was a guest there today. Thousands joined in the welcome. On the arrival of the presidential party they were received by Mayor A. G. Whittemore and a committee. Under an escort of militia, the guests were escorted to a platform on Franklin square, where the president delivered an address.

On return to the train the president found Gen. F. B. Farnham and Col. E. B. Sangers of Bangor, Me., Col. E. Dill of Augusta and other representatives of Governor John F. Hill of Maine, who had come to escort the presidential party across the New Hampshire line.

President Roosevelt came into Maine this afternoon, and before his departure tomorrow night he will have visited every congressional district in the state, the principal city in each district and the home city of each of Maine's United States senators. Upon his arrival in Portland the president was joined by Senator W. P. Frye, and after speaking briefly to a great crowd in Railway square, was taken for a drive about the city.

Praise for Thomas B. Reed.

Among the citizens of Portland whom President Roosevelt met was Thomas B. Reed. During the drive the president stopped at the Longfellow mansion and wrote his name in the guest register. He made a brief call at ex-Speaker Reed's home. In a short speech near the railway station the president praised Reed's work in congress, because, as speaker, he made the congressional machinery operate.

When Danville junction was reached the president was greeted by Postmaster General and Mrs. Payne. Mrs. Garret A. Hobart and Mrs. Charles Emory Smith, Mr. Payne accompanied the president to Lewiston.

Some stops were made which were not on the itinerary. At Lisbon, Lisbon Falls and Brunswick, Me., immense crowds gathered and the president, in response to their clamorous calls, was obliged to appear on the rear platform and say a few words.

Although the day has been a particularly hard one on him, the president gave but slight signs of fatigue. Tonight he is the guest of Gov. Hill, who met him at the depot and escorted him to his residence, where the president made a short address. The governor's house has become historic because of the fact that it was the home of James G. Blaine and the president occupies tonight the identical bedroom used by that statesman.

A Late Application of an Old Story.

INCORPORATION COMES BEFORE ARBITRATION

Supreme Court Justice Points Out Path to Labor Unions.

GEO. SHIRAS, JR., SAYS IT IS LOGICAL STEP

George Shiras, Jr., justice of the United States supreme court, is in favor of settling strikes and labor troubles by arbitration, and points out the first step necessary for successful arbitration in such cases.

Justice Shiras arrived in Pittsburgh yesterday from a long vacation, spent along the northern shores of Lake Superior. He refuses to discuss his reported retirement from the bench further than to say that President Roosevelt would be the first person to learn of it and that he had not received the announcement yet.

On the subject of the anthracite coal strike Justice Shiras said: "Arbitration is the logical method of settling labor troubles such as this one, which affects the general prosperity and comfort of a great section of the country. The method and inforcement of this arbitration is a subject for the lawmakers of the nation; but arbitration itself is logical.

"There is now one great difficulty standing in the way of an arbitration law. Many of the labor unions are not incorporated. Until they are no law can be made binding, as no contract or agreement could be enforced upon them, while the operators, on the other hand, could be held liable.

A Necessary Step.

"Incorporation of all labor unions is the primary step toward the passage of an arbitration law. The unions must be responsible for the carrying out of an agreement, and until they are there is little hope for compulsory arbitration of labor troubles."

The justice said there are two most important cases now puzzling the supreme court that almost seem to require arbitration themselves.

"The state of Kansas has brought suit in behalf of its citizens living along the fertile valley of the Arkansas river against the state of Colorado," said he. "It is alleged that the practice of irrigation in Colorado has become so universal that as a result the volume of the Arkansas river has so decreased as to greatly damage the fertility of farms in Kansas along its course. As Kansas was the first state settled she claims that her citizens have a prior right to the use of the water, while Colorado asserts that she has a perfect right to all the water of the river which is produced in her boundaries.

Few Important Cases.

"Another is the case of certain citizens of Connecticut against the state of New York. The waters of the Croton river have been dammed and are carried off almost to the last drop through great aqueducts to New York city. The dams are in New York, but for a considerable distance the river course borders Connecticut, and the owners along it are demanding heavy damage for the cutting off of their water. These are only the forerunners of scores of similar difficulties that impend from many sections of the country."

In the private yacht of Henry S. A. Stewart, the owner, with Justice Shiras and President John B. Jackson of the Fidelity Title & Trust Company, spent three weeks on Lake Superior and enjoyed some good fishing. Mr. Stewart carried off first honors with a speckled trout weighing over four pounds.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—This was a big day for "Pittsburgh Phil" (George E. Smith).

AUTOMOBILE FALLS FROM HIGH VIADUCT; TWO MEET DEATH

Chauffeur Loses Control and the Heavy Machine Crashes Through Side Railing.

THREE BADLY INJURED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Aug. 26.—Beyond control and wildly swerving from side to side, an automobile crashed through the railing of a viaduct spanning railroad tracks in Park avenue, near Elberon, N. J., this afternoon. It fell 35 feet to the ground. Two persons are dead and three injured.

The dead:

FRANK J. MATTHEWS, 40 years old, president of the Realty Trust Company, of Jersey City, a summer resident of Allenhurst.

MRS. M. CABLE, 32 years old, of Richmond, Virginia.

The injured:

MRS. LEWIS PIZZINI, of Richmond, Va., leg broken and suffering from shock.

THE REV. FATHER GRANT of the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, New York, bruised and suffering from shock.

RUDOLPH MEYERS, chauffeur, leg broken and bruised on body.

Mr. Matthews and Father Grant occupied the front seat, Mrs. Cable and Mrs. Pizzini were in the rear seat, and the chauffeur stood behind on the step. Mr. Matthews occupied the chauffeur's seat. He had safely crossed the trolley tracks at Park avenue, going toward Ocean avenue, and was climbing the upgrade to the viaduct, which at this point crosses the track of the New York & Long Branch railroad, lying 35 feet below, when he lost control of the machine.

The machine turned over completely in its descent, and cast its huge weight upon its occupants. Mr. Matthews was under the heavy iron body of the machine, and suffered almost instant death.

Mrs. Cable and Mrs. Pizzini were unconscious when picked up, and remained so until their removal to the city hospital. There all efforts of a corps of surgeons proved vain in Mrs. Cable's case, and she died about two hours after admission to the hospital.

Witnesses of the accident hastened to the aid of the injured and succeeded in removing the inanimate bodies from the tracks just in time to avert another tragedy, as the 2:30 train came thundering along in a few minutes.

EX-GOV. HOADLY DEAD.

News Comes as Great Surprise to Friends Who Did Not Know of His Illness.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—George Hoadly, former governor of Ohio and a member of the law firm of Hoadly, Lauterbach & Johnson of this city, died today at Watkins, N. Y.

It is said the ex-governor had been ill for some length of time. Several weeks ago, becoming much more indisposed, he concluded that he would go to Watkins, with the hope of regaining some of his lost strength. He grew worse day by day, however, and died shortly after 5 o'clock this evening.

Mr. Hoadly was born in New Haven, Conn., in 1826, and received his early education at Cleveland. He was graduated from the Western Reserve university in 1844, and his law studies were made at Harvard law school. In 1849 he was admitted as a partner in the firm of Chase & Ball, in Cincinnati. Salmon P. Chase, who afterward became chief justice of the United States supreme court, was the senior member of the firm.

Mr. Hoadly was elected in 1851 as judge of the superior court of Cincinnati, city solicitor in 1855, and governor in 1883, defeating Joseph B. Foraker.

TO WIDEN GAUGE.

Waynesburg & Washington Railroad to Be Improved by Pennsylvania Company.

WASHINGTON, PA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Today the Pennsylvania railroad officials had men at work south of town asking for rights-of-way for the Waynesburg & Washington railway on its location. From Deerlick to Waynesburg the line now used will be widened to standard guage.

It is claimed that by these changes the Pennsylvania will get a line to Waynesburg between four and five miles shorter than the present Waynesburg & Washington. It will only be necessary to build about six miles of new line.

GOVERNOR STONE WOULD WIPE OUT POLITICAL BOSS

Says It Is Duty of Every Citizen to Do Campaign Work.

WILL JOIN IN GAME IN PITTSBURGH

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Williamsport, Pa., Aug. 26.—While in this city Gov. Stone was interviewed concerning the interest he would take in politics in the state after he leaves the gubernatorial chair. A week or so ago an interviewer made the governor say that he was through with politics, and that he would have nothing more to do with it. The exact words were quoted to his excellency, and in reply he said:

"That is the veriest nonsense. I never said I would quit politics. What I did say was that I do not want any more political offices. I shall always be interested in politics, and when I locate in Pittsburgh I shall take an active part in it. It is the duty of every citizen to be interested in politics, and if more of them took a real active concern in such affairs there would be less room for criticism and complaint. I am very sorry that more business men are not interested in politics. They should be. They owe it to themselves and to the community. I do not mean that they should cast their ballots at only the general elections, but they should work and vote at primaries. That is the place where the greatest harm is done, and that is where the professional politicians gets in his strongest work. If the best people in the community would get together and work and vote for the best men they could find, then politics would become cleaner and purer, and the terms 'boss' and 'bossism' would soon be wiped out of politics. I hope soon to see the day that the business men and representative people of all communities will take an active part in county, state and national politics."

"Then you have no intention of quitting politics?"

"No, sir, not even for a moment. I am going to return to Pittsburgh after my term of office expires, where I will resume the practice of law. I was interested in politics in that city before I became governor, and I will again take an active part in it."

SPENDING $2,000,000.

Official Report of B. R. & P. Tells of Indiana Extension and New Traffic Agreements.

The annual report of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railroad for the year ended June 30, contains some interesting statements regarding the extensions of the road into Indiana county and the traffic agreement with the Beech Creek. Extracts from the report follow:

For the purpose of reaching coal lands which have been acquired and are being developed in the interest of the Rochester and Pittsburgh Coal and Iron Company, and the Jefferson and Clearfield Coal and Iron Company, the board of directors resolved to issue, at par, $1,300,000 additional common capital stock. The proceeds of $800,000 of this stock will be used to pay for the construction of a branch about 28 miles long from a point on the main line near Punxsutawney to McKee, Indiana county, Pa., leaving $500,000 for future extensions. Since then the board has thought it advisable to further extend your system, about 38 miles, to reach coal lands near Vintondale, Pa., controlled by the Lackawanna Steel Company of Buffalo.

A traffic contract covering a period of 25 years has been entered into giving the Rochester & Pittsburgh the right to use the New York Central's Beech Creek extension from Clearfield, Pa., via Keating to a connection with the Philadelphia & Reading.

MEADVILLE YOUTH SUPPOSED VICTIM OF BLACKMAILERS

Son of Dr. Hayes Disappears After Father Receives Threats by Letter.

WAS PROBABLY KIDNAPED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Meadville, Pa., Aug. 26.—Repeated threats of kidnaping Kenneth, the 13-year-old son of Dr. Ken C. Hayes, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, have evidently been carried into effect. The boy has been missing since 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and Dr. Hayes is convinced that he has been stolen.

Three months ago a fellow calling himself "Kid" Hall visited Dr. Hayes and demanded money, which was refused. At intervals since that time the doctor has received letters threatening the kidnaping of one of his children unless he submitted to blackmail. Two weeks ago Dr. Hayes received an unsigned letter warning him:

"Beware, beware. Soon a terrible calamity shall overtake you. Prepare for the emergency. Failure on your part means being shot from ambush."

The boy was seen on the street near home about 4 p. m. Sunday, since when nothing can be learned of him, although his father has telegraphed to various points. Dr. Hayes is a former chaplain of the Fifteenth and the Sixteenth regiments, N. G. P.

VALUABLE ESTATE LEFT TO CHARITY

Will of Mrs. Aultman of Canton, Who Died Yesterday, Disposes of $350,000.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CANTON, O., Aug. 26.—Mrs. Kate B. Aultman, widow of Cornelius Aultman, founder of Canton's first big factory, died this morning at the age of 74. She had never fully recovered from the shock which followed the death of her husband in 1884. She leaves an estate estimated at $350,000, nearly all in charitable bequests.

The beneficiaries are the Aultman hospital, $100,000; Canton public library, $25,000; Canton First Methodist Episcopal church, $25,000; Mount Union college, at Alliance, $25,000; Canton Trinity Lutheran church, $15,000; Women's Christian Temperance union, $15,000; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Miller of North Market street, $10,000; the children of the sister of C. Aultman, $10,000; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Smith, $3,000.

The will provides that, after the payment of these items, the remainder of the estate, estimated by Trustee Thayer to be about $100,000, is to go to the establishment and maintenance of a home for aged women. The brick residence at 718 North Market street, opposite the McKinley cottage, the home of Mrs. Aultman at the time of her death, it is thought by friends, may be used for that purpose. The entire matter, however, is in the hands of a committee of trustees appointed in the will.

HANNA IS ENCOURAGED.

Ohio Senator Writes That Progress Has Been Made in Settlement of the Miners' Strike.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Several days ago, N. F. Thompson, formerly secretary of the Johnstown board of trade, wrote to Senator M. A. Hanna, urging compulsory arbitration as the only means of settling the anthracite strike. Under date of yesterday, Senator Hanna wrote:

"I note your argument in favor of compulsory arbitration, but my experience among the labor leaders would indicate that they are not yet prepared to admit the force of this argument; in other words, they are opposed to compulsory arbitration.

"All this is the work of education, and must be approached very carefully and by short steps. I am not discouraged by several failures to adjust situations, because I realize a great deal of prejudice must be overcome before the antagonistic elements can be brought into friendly relationship. Our success thus far is such that I feel greatly encouraged to go on with the work."

SHIPS BOMBARD CIUDAD BOLIVAR NIGHT AND DAY

Revolutionists Still Hold City Against Government Force.

HAITIEN VILLAGE DESTROYED BY FIRE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

Caracas, Venezuela, Aug. 26.—Ciudad Bolivar, capital of the state of Bolivar, has been bombarded by a Venezuelan government warship and many persons were killed or wounded.

The place has a large British population and the British subjects have requested that a warship of Great Britain be sent for their protection. It is alleged that atrocities have been committed at Ciudad Bolivar by both government troops and revolutionists.

Ciudad Bolivar is still in the power of the revolutionists. The town was fired upon day and night by the gunboats Bolivar and Restaurador, which attempted to land forces to reoccupy the place. The Restaurador left for La Guayra for supplies, after which the bombardment will be resumed. There are no foreign warships in the Orinoco river to protect the interests of the powers.

WILLEMSTAD, ISLAND OF CURACOA, Aug. 26.—The Dutch government refuses to recognize the blockade of Venezuelan ports, declaring it noneffective.

CAPE HAITIEN, Aug. 26.—The village of Limbe, 82 miles north of Port au Prince, has been attacked and recaptured by troops of the provisional government. Limbe was in the possession of Firminite soldiers from the Artibonite district. The fighting was severe and lasted from midnight last night to midday today. Many men on both sides were killed. The town was burned.

The defenders of Limbe were reinforced by marines landed from the gunboat Crete-a-Pierrot, which is in the Firminite service.

A battle also took place today at Marmelade, but details are lacking.

The United States cruiser Cincinnati arrived here this morning from La Guayra, Venezuela.

FRACTURED HIS SKULL.

First Serious Accident on the Farmers Deposit National Bank Sky-Scraper.

The first serious accident on the new skyscraper being erected for the Farmers Deposit bank at Fifth avenue and Wood street occurred yesterday shortly after noon. T. J. Dougherty entered the employ of the construction company yesterday morning. He had just finished eating his lunch when the whistle sounded for return to work. He started for his place, missed his footing and fell three floors, landing head first upon the terra cotta fire proofing of the ninth floor.

He was picked up unconscious and found to be badly cut about the head. Fellow employes carried him to the bottom of the building and sent him to the Passavant hospital. It was said at the hospital last evening that he sustained a fracture of the skull and that his chances for recovery are very slight.

The erection of the Farmers Deposit bank building has made, so far, an almost unequaled record in the matter of casualties, and now that over half of the steel work, the most dangerous part of the construction, is completed, hopes were indulged that the work was to be completed without serious accident. The list of fatalities at the Frick building was so long and serious that a reptition of such a record has been avoided by all known means.

Dougherty came to work for the George A. Fuller company only yesterday morning. Samuel White, superintendent of the steel construction, knew only his name. His residence and family are entirely unknown.

ROOT APPROVES GEN. MILES' TRIP TO PHILIPPINES

Will Go on Tour of Inspection of Army and Will Not Interfere With Plans of Chaffee or Davis.

HE WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY TWO MEMBERS OF STAFF

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 26.—Authority today was granted to Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles to go to the Philippines on a tour of inspection of that part of the army in the archipelago. The authorization reads:

"I have the honor to announce that your application to inspect that portion of the army serving in the Philippines is approved by the president. You will sail about the 15th of September, and in inspecting the army will give especial attention to its instruction, discipline and supplies of all kinds."

Three transports—the Crook, Sheridan and Thomas—are at present lying at San Francisco and will depart for Manila in September. The Sheridan will sail on September 1 and the Thomas on September 15. If she is not ready on that date the Crook will sail in her stead.

If Gen. Miles goes to the Philippines he probably will be accompanied by his military secretary, Col. Whitney, and his son-in-law, Col. Samuel Reber, and possibly Col. Maus, inspecting officer of the staff. If Gen. Miles allows a month for his inspection of the army in the islands and sails from this country on September 15, he probably will return in December or January.

Only a Looker-On.

It is the understanding that Gen. Miles will not interfere in any way with either Gen. Chaffee or his successor, Gen. Davis, in the direction of the army in the Philippines. He will critically examine the conditions as he finds them, devoting his attention entirely to matters of army administration and not to political affairs, and the results of his work will be embodied in a set of reports. Some such work as this was undertaken a few months ago by Inspector General Breckenridge, who prepared a voluminous set of reports, which have not yet been published, making suggestions for the betterment of the military service at every point from transportation down to discipline, accoutrements and supplies.

Gen. Miles' application to go to the Philippines is of compartively recent date and is in no way connected with his application of several months ago. When the first application was made it was coupled with certain suggestions as to terminating the war and Secretary Root's refusal to grant the first request was based largely upon these phases of the application. In view of this it is understood that Gen. Miles restricted his second application so as to make the trip one for purely military purposes.

Returns by Way of Europe.

Although the text of the application was not given out at the war department it is said that one of its features is a request that the return from the Philippines be by way of the eastern route. As the application is approved Gen. Miles will return by this route, which insures his visiting Europe on his way back to America.

It is expected that Mrs. Miles will accompany the general to the Philippines and it may be that his married daughter, who is the wife of Col. Reber, one of the general's aids, also will accompany the party.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Gen. Miles arrived in town this morning and went directly down to Sandy Hook to attend a meeting of the ordnance board. He returned in the afternoon on the army quartermaster's boat, Gen. Meigs, and landed at the barge office shortly after 2 o'clock.

Asked about his trip to Manila, when he intended leaving and why he was going, Gen Miles said:

"I am going to visit that part of the army now in the Philippines, just as I have recently visited the posts in the United States. It is one of my duties and going to Manila is in the line of my duty. I will not speak of the details of the trip."

Gen. Miles left for Washington this afternoon.

MISSING LAWYER VISITED PARIS

Now He Is Lying at Home of Father Stein in Paterson, N. J., Under Doctor's Care.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

EASTON, PA., Aug. 26.—Henry S. Cavanaugh, the missing Easton lawyer, is lying seriously ill at the home of Father Stein in Paterson, N. J. He cannot coherently account for the time after he disappeared.

It appears from what he has been able to tell that when he left the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, on August 7, he boarded the French steamer Touraine and landed in Paris, where he says he remembers that he at once gave a cable dispatch to a messenger for his wife in Easton. He does not remember its contents.

After about six hours spent in Paris he took the steamer Gascogne back to New York, where he landed yesterday. He then took a train to Paterson and was driven to the residence of Father Stein. Father Stein immediately communicated with Mrs. Cavanaugh in Easton, who is now with her husband. Dr. Park has told the family that Mr. Cavanaugh required medical attendance three months ago. He is suffering from congested circulation.

MORGAN STANDS BY COAL OPERATORS

President Baer Announces After Call on Big Financier That Fight Will Go on.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—It is war to the bitter end between the men who are in control of the anthracite coal mines and the miners who have not worked for nearly four months. This was decided today after a day of conference between the operators, reports of which were made to J. P. Morgan.

For nearly an hour and a half President Baer of the Philadelphia & Reading and Mr. Morgan were together. After the conference Mr. Baer said: "At this afternoon's meeting we have simply exchanged notes regarding the strike of the anthracite miners. Generally, the situation is unchanged. The assumption that my visit today with J. Pierpont Morgan signified a change in the program we have followed in the strike is entirely erroneous.

"I will say that our fixed purpose to refuse to arbitrate this dispute is as firm as ever. There will be no arbitration. We will not allow it. Generally speaking, we are satisfied with conditions."

NATIONAL ISSUE NOT SUBMERGED IN STATE FIGHT

Orators Will Urge Necessity of Full Quota Being Sent to Congress.

STORY TOLD BY FIGURES

Fusionist Candidates Last Year Closed Up Majority in Ten Districts—Only Four Democrats Entitled to Seats from Pennsylvania.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Philadelphia, Aug. 26.—Much stress will be laid upon the congressional situation by Republican orators in this campaign. It will be emphasized that the election of a governor is of subordinate importance to Republican control of congress. The election of a Democratic president, following a Democratic victory in Pennsylvania if the present candidate were successful, will not be overlooked. The national issue will not be submerged. Republican managers expect to elect, without fail, 27 of the 32 congressmen.

The vote cast in the fusion fight last year and the estimate of the Democratic congressional committee on the political complexion of the next national house of representatives, it is said, will be quoted to show that the alarm of the Republican state managers at this time is genuine, and not put forth solely to protect the state ticket.

The Republican congressional committee, in its estimate, conceded the Democrats in Pennsylvania five congressmen and the Republicans 27. There were four Democrats elected to the present congress—Howard Mutchler of Northampton, Henry D. Green of Berks, J. K. P. Hall of Elk and Rufus K. Polk of Northumberland, who died several months ago, and whose seat is still vacant.

The last legislature, in reapportioning the state, left these Democratic districts undisturbed, except Congressman Hall's, which was dismembered and the various counties tacked to Republican strongholds. Cumberland, however, was taken from York and Adams to make these two counties into a sure Democratic congressional district.

The Republicans in the legislature were satisfied to give the Democrats four congressional districts in Pennsylvania. To have given them any fewer, it was argued, would endanger Republican districts. So the Democratic counties were bunched together where they would do the least harm. But the fusion vote of last year, when computed by congressional districts, opened the eyes of the Republican managers. It was discovered that, had members of congress been voted for at that election, the Democrats, with the assistance of their Republican allies, the Independents, would have elected 10 congressmen, and the stalwart representation from Pennsylvania in the national house of representatives would have been 22 instead of 27.

The five districts now represented by Republicans, which were carried by Coray, the fusion candidate for state treasurer in 1901, and the majority he received over his Republican opponent are the Eighth, Montgomery and Bucks, 8,793; Tenth, Lackawanna, 2,783; Eleventh, Luzerc, 15,214; Twelfth, Schuylkill, 3,526; Fifteenth, Potter, Tioga, Clinton and Lycoming, 712; Twenty-first, Clearfield, Center, Cameron and McKean, 405. With these figures before it, and with a prospect of the Democrats and Independents fusing on state and congressional tickets, the Democratic congressional committee claimed in its recent estimate that Pennsylvania would send to the next congress 10 Democrats, an increase of 6 over the present number.

WILLIAM S. DEVERY.

Former Chief of Police of New York, Who Is Making a Hot Campaign to Be Boss of the Ninth Assembly District.

WAS BANISHED BY THE BURGESS FROM THE HOME OF HER CHILDHOOD DAYS.

Under the conditions of the sentence imposed upon Mrs. Mahalah Chambers, a music teacher of Wilkinsburg, yesterday morning by Burgess Horner she is to leave the home of her childhood, never to return, on penalty of being rearrested and fined $25 and sentenced to the workhouse for three months. Mrs. Chambers is a young married woman who has been separated from her husband for some time but is not divorced. Monday morning she was arrested upon complaint of her maiden aunt, Miss Mary Cromlish of Franklin avenue, Wilkinsburg, with whom Mrs. Chambers and her mother, Mrs. Isabella Hopkins, have been living.

The woman's mother testified that she had been very erratic; that she threatened to kill her, as well as her aunt. Mrs. Hopkins further testified that her daughter had picked up a flatiron, and with bad language, threatened to brain her with it; that her daughter had once knocked her down and declared that she would kill her, if she had to serve 20 years in the penitentiary for it. Mrs. Hopkins' testimony was fully corroborated by Miss Cromlish, who further testified that the young woman had threatened to burn the house, which was the property of the witness. The prosecuting witnesses are well-to-do, refined and belong to the better class of Wilkinsburg population.

Burgess Horner told Mrs. Chambers that if she would agree to leave home and never return or molest her mother or aunt he would suspend sentence so far as the fine was concerned, but that she must pay the costs, amounting to $5.05. She agreed to this.

AFTER CHARTER OF WATER COMPANY

HILL TOP BOARD OF TRADE ORDERS TWO WARRANTO PROCEEDINGS.

Residents in Other Sections Served by Chartiers Valley Water Co., Asked to Aid in Gathering Evidence—Attorney's Hot Statement.

The Hill Top board of trade last night by unanimous resolution instructed a committee to employe an attorney to begin quo warranto proceedings against the Chartiers Valley Water Company before the attorney general, for the surrender of its charter.

Action was taken also against the Monongahela Water Company. Attorney A. G. Smith said the case against that corporation was more of a political nature, and the only aim of the company is to get the city to buy a worthless plant.

"Instead of watering the people the company waters it's stock to unload it on the city at an increased price."

He said the proper method is to keep agitating the matter and interest the councilmen.

It was suggested that the services of Attorney W. B. Rodgers be secured, he having expressed a willingness to take the case. A resolution was passed, calling upon the citizens of Crafton, Lower St. Clair, Ingram and Sheraden to form investigating committees and obtain evidence.

GRIEF DROVE HER CRAZY.

Sad Affliction of McKeesport Colored Girl—Died in the County Almshouse.

Distracted by grief which resulted in a physical collapse, Lerdina Johnstone, 16 years old and colored, a servant, died at the Allegheny County home at Woodville yesterday afternoon a raving maniac because those who had been her employes were compelled to leave her behind on their departure for their new home in the west. The girl had been with William W. Hunter and his wife of McKeesport since she was three years old. They raised and trained her, and she became attached to them.

On August 20 they told her they intended to leave this section of the country to go west. She became moody and very much distressed, but two or three days later secured another place.

Last Sunday morning she had a long talk with her new employer and told her of her love for Mrs. Hunter. That night she became insane and wanted to kill everybody about the place. She was taken to the county home on Monday and yesterday died a raving maniac.

ROBBER KILLED BY A POLICEMAN

NEW CASTLE OFFICER SHOOTS DOWN A BURGLAR.

The Victim Was Discovered on the Roof of a Boarding House and Made an Effort to Escape When He Received the Fatal Wound.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW CASTLE, PA., Aug. 26.—Great excitement was caused here tonight by a local policeman killing a robber, who was caught in the act of entering a house. The dead man is Andrew Sammal, a boiler cleaner at the Rosena furnace, 35 years old and single. He resided in Sciota street.

At 11 o'clock the police department received a telephone message that two men were acting in a suspicious manner at the corner of Grant and North Jefferson streets. Officer Charles McCrudden was dispatched to the scene. After hunting awhile, he discovered a man standing on the roof of a boarding house in North Jefferson street. The boarding house is a one-story frame structure and adjoins the residence of Frederick Tillman. From the man's position on the roof of the boarding house he was in a position to gain easy access to Tillman's home. When perceived by the policeman he stood before Tillman's second-story window, and it is thought was in the act of raising the sash. Frederick Tillman lives at No. 133 North Jefferson street, and the dead man worked under him at the Rosena furnace.

When the officer started for the man, Sammal jumped to the other side of the roof and escaped to the ground. The officer started in pursuit, calling on the fugitive to halt. The chase continued on Center street, where McCrudden pulled his revolver and fired. The first shot went wild, but after another demand to halt was ignored McCrudden fired again. The man dropped in the middle of the street and was dying when the officer reached his side. The bullet entered his head at the base of the brain.

Tillman and the dead man were good friends, and had been together tonight a little over an hour before the shooting took place. Chief of Police Horner congratulated Officer McCrudden on his work.

NO WORK FOR THEM.

Force of City Engineers Will Be Reduced in the Near Future.

Reports of a wholesale shakeup in the bureau of construction are vigorously denied by Superintendent Frank Schwartz. He says that, so far as he knows, there is no friction in his department, and his forces will not be reduced by the dismissal of men at issue with him or other employes of the office.

"There will be a reduction in the city's engineering force in the near future, but it will be due to the completion of the plans for filtration, which now repose in the safe of Director McCandless. Filtration Engineer Morris Knowles, with five or six assistants and a number of minor employes, will have nothing to do, and unless councils take unexpectedly sudden action toward following out the plans, there will be a reduction of the payroll there—and that is all," said Recorder Brown yesterday.

ANAESTHETIC MADE HIM WILD.

Beaver Falls Workman of Whom Example Was to Be Made Released.

Superintendent of Police John McAleese secured the release from jail yesterday of B. E. Flanders, who was sent there last Sunday on a charge of carrying a revolver. He was arrested in Bedford avenue, Saturday night, while flourishing the weapon, and it was intended to make an example of him.

A few days ago Flanders got a steel sliver in his eye. He came to the city and was given an anaesthetic, which so affected his conduct that the policeman who saw him thought he was drunk. He was released and taken home.

A WIFE-BEATER WAS THREATENED WITH LYNCHING

Angry Mob of 1,000 Surrounded Home of Frightened Italian.

THE POLICE JUST IN TIME

Donato Libetti Gladly Surrendered to Them and Was Taken to Police Station With Great Difficulty. Woman's Injuries Were Slight.

Donato Libetti, an Italian fruit dealer of No. 1049 Wheeler street, Homestead, almost caused a riot in Wheeler street last night by knocking his wife down with a chair and otherwise abusing her in their home. Only the prompt arrival of the police from No. 6 police station prevented the other Italians of the neighborhood from lynching Libetti.

Libetti became angry at his wife because he had to pay a fine of $10 for her on a charge of stealing fruit from an orchard in the neighborhood. Last night, it is alleged, he went home intoxicated and began a quarrel with his wife, knocking her down with a chair. The woman's screams were heard by the neighbors, and thinking Libetti was killing his wife, about 1,000 men, women and children surrounded the house and demanded admittance.

While a call was being sent for the police the mob threatened Libetti and the latter barricaded his windows and doors. Lieut. Edward McPoland and several officers quickly responded to the call in a patrol wagon. After some difficulty the officers succeeded in forcing a passage through the crowd and Libetti gladly opened his doors to them and submitted to arrest.

The police found Mrs. Libetti bruised from being struck by the chair, but she claimed that her husband had only been playing a joke on her and that she was not hurt.

Libetti was placed in the patrol wagon with considerable difficulty, as the mob wanted to wreak vengence on him before he was taken away. The crowd surrounded the wagon and followed it for several blocks before it could be dispersed. Libetti was finally lodged in the police station, where a charge of disorderly conduct was made against him.

FIRE IN OIL REFINERY.

Mysterious Blaze in Still—Blaze at Horne's Stables.

An oil still at the refinery of the Atlantic Refining Company, Fifty-seventh and Butler streets, exploded at 11:30 o'clock last night from some unknown cause. No one was near at the time. There was not much oil in the still at the time, and this prevented a big blaze. An alarm was sent in from box No. 545.

Fire was discovered in the stables of the Joseph Horne Company in Penn avenue, near Second street, at 11:15 last night. The fire started on the third floor, on which was stored a carload of hay in bales and straw bedding, but was flooded out before much damage was done to the building. The loss will be about $500, principally from water. The second floor front was occupied by J. F. Crawford, the barn boss, whose goods were also damaged slightly by water. The origin of the fire is not known and, although two watchmen are on duty, the fire was discovered from the outside. The horses and wagons were removed from the building without difficulty.

CASES FOR THE CORONER.

Well Known Sharpsburg Man Killed in a Collision—Carrie Furnace Victim.

John H. Braun, 32 years old, of No. 1602 Middle street, Sharpsburg, died yesterday morning at the West Penn hospital from internal injuries received near Aspinwall earlier in the morning. Braun was riding on a heavy farm wagon belonging to the H. J. Heinz Company, which was struck at the Heinz crossing by the Springdale accommodation.

The wagon was hurled with such force against the opposite track that the rails were bent and had to be replaced. One of the horse's legs was broken. Charles Ffush, who was on the wagon, escaped by jumping. Braun is survived by his wife and nine children.

Patrick Coyle, a laborer, 30 years old, of Rankin, died yesterday morning at the Mercy hospital from injuries received at the Carrie furnace on August 14.

ABANDONED MINE AFIRE.

Scare on Gazzam's Hill Over Flames from Old Shaft.

Hundreds of people last night watched a squad of men from No. 5 engine company fight the fire which has broken out anew at the abandoned coal mine on Gazzam's hill. A flood of water was poured into the shaft with seemingly little effect. Supt. John McAlese of the police department detailed a number of policemen to keep people out of danger.

John Finney of Webster avenue is said to have resumed operations at the abandoned workings some weeks ago. A few operatives' inexperience is supposed to have caused the blaze. The mine has been afire for about three weeks.

A FAMILY FEUD ON IN KILBUCK

USUALLY PEACEFUL TOWNSHIP DEVELOPS WAR.

Shootings, Assaults and Lawsuits Add Bitterness to Dispute Over Boundary Fence Between Toussiant and Hausbeck Families.

The Toussiant-Hausbeck family feud has broken out in Kilbuck township, this county. There have been bickerings, shootings, beatings on lonely roads and seven lawsuits.

The trouble lies between the families of Peter Toussiant and Charles Hausbeck, both well-to-do farmers of Kilbuck township, living on adjoining properties just north of Emsworth borough. An old line-fence squabble began this row.

The case last night was a hearing before 'Squire Samuel Abernathy in Allegheny on the charge of felonious shooting preferred by Mrs. Barbara Hausbeck, wife of Charles Hausbeck, against Peter Toussiant, the head of the enemy. She charges that Toussiant shot a flobert rifle at the Hausbeck forces during a war of words on July 5 and that the bullet lodged in her right leg.

Three times, she said, her family has been sued before Alderman William Lang of Allegheny for breach of the peace, assault and battery and disorderly conduct. In return the Hausbeck faction has brought four suits against the Toussiants, making the same charges and capping the climax with last night's charge of felonious shooting. Last spring, according to Mrs. Hausbeck, members of the Toussiant family met a number of the Hausbeck men on a lonely country road late at night and beat them to a whisper.

In the Toussiant testimony it was stated that the Hausbecks have been relentless persecutors of their neighbors for years and that all that has been done to them was in self-defense.

Attorney John M. Goehring, on behalf of Mrs. Hausbeck, asked that the defendant be held for court. This was done and Toussiant gave bail in $500 for appearance at the September term.

ZEMA-CURA NEVER FAILS TO MAKE PERFECT SKIN.

There is no excuse in the world for that unhealthy skin which disfigures you in the eyes of all your friends and acquaintances. There is no excuse in the world for eruptions, pimples, blackheads, hives or any other skin trouble.

You can have as clean, clear, bright and attractive skin as Nature ever produced. You can get it by the use of Zema-Cura, the wonderful skin remedy discovered by Dr. Harris. This is not theory nor mere advertising talk.

Dr. Harris worked incessantly for many years to perfect this medicine and used it in an extensive private practice for a long time before offering it to the public generally.

Its record—which no one can dispute—shows that it has not yet failed to cure every known skin trouble where it has been used, leaving no scar or mark behind. The cure will be a permanent one. You will never be troubled again.

"Dear Dr. Harris:—I wish to say a few words of praise in regard to your Eczema Medicine. I had been troubled with Eczema on my hands for about six years, and was recommended to you by Mr. John Weller, of this city, and after about two months of your treatment it all disappeared. I had tried several specialists here and in the East, but could get no relief until I commenced to use Zema-Cura, but am happy to say that it all disappeared at least six months ago, and has never shown any signs of returning. I can honestly recommend it to anyone that is troubled in that way, and am sure they will receive great benefit from same."

H. SCHWABACHER, Louisville, Ky.

ZEMA-CURA

is a liquid, applied externally. It has none of the disagreeable features of a salve or ointment. It is the only CURE of skin diseases yet discovered. Zema-Cura will positively cure Eczema, Acne, Heat, Herpes, Lupus, Erysipelas, Urticaria (Nettle Rash), Barber's Itch, Mesquito Bites, Blackheads, Pimples and Blotches on the face, Hives, Burns, Cuts, or any itching condition of the skin or scalp. All druggists sell it. 50 cents and $1.00.

Remember! ZEMA-CURA is not one of the many "patent medicines" of the day. It is a doctor's prescription—a scientific compound that has been used for years by its discoverer, Dr. Harris, in daily practice. It has restored thousands of sufferers from torturing skin diseases to perfect health. If you will write to-day Dr. Harris will advise you fully and carefully regarding your case, and charge you absolutely nothing.

Address: Dr. M. M. HARRIS, The Zema-Cura Co., No. 3 West 22nd Street, New York City.

During the treatment of all skin diseases with ZEMA-CURA, externally, U-AH-MA, Dr. Harris' Blood Purifier, taken internally, will be found of great benefit. By acting on the excretory glands U-AH-MA eliminates the poison virus, and hastens and completes the cure. $1.00. Druggists, or express prepaid.

QUAY LODESTONE DRAWING SCORES TO PHILADELPHIA

Senator Unable to Receive All His Guests Because of Great Numbers.

OUTSIDE AID IS COMING

Burroughs and Fairbanks Will Make Speeches in Pennsylvania During Campaign—Many Begging Letters Come to State Headquarters.

By CHESTER D. POTTER.
Staff Correspondent.
[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Philadelphia, Aug. 26.—Senator Quay worked every minute of his second day at state headquarters, and when he left for Atlantic City at 4:14 this afternoon he had disposed of a good quantity of business. The fact that the senator is at the helm draws republicans here from all parts of the state. So great is the rush that Chairman Quay now finds it possible only to see those who have appointments, with exceptions being county leaders whose mission is of pressing importance. State headquarters has not been so active for years. As Thomas Garvin, clerk of the house of the last legislature, put it this afternoon: "When we write letters the answer comes by return mail. It has not been so in the past, and probably 90 per cent of the inquiries sent out were never replied to. The words 'M. S. Quay, chairman,' has a talismanic effect."

Secretary Andrews is more than enthusiastic.

"Never in my experience," said the secretary, "did the early campaign enthusiasm equal that of this year. From every city we are getting the most glowing reports, and the majority this fall will, if I am not wrong, surpass all records."

Visit That's Worth While.

Among the many visitors today were C. Wesley Thomas, collector of the port, who left his check for $500 with Chairman Quay. Visits of this kind will be encouraged by the chairman of the state committee.

Speaker W. T. Marshall of Allegheny was called. Mr. Marshall said he was very confident of re-election in the Second legislative district and that only a "tidal wave" could defeat him.

Senator Burroughs of Michigan and Senator Fairbanks of Indiana have written Chairman Quay that they will be released to make two or more speeches during the state campaign. They will be assigned later on. It is probable that Judge Pennypacker will start his stumping tour before October 1, the exact date not being settled. It may be as early as September 15. Ex-Gov. Pattison, it is said, will make an early start, and the Republican spellbinders will not be far behind.

It is stated by those in authority that the agents of Col. Guffey are making extraordinary efforts to control the Union party convention, which convenes here September 3. Democratic lieutenants are active all over the state, particularly in western counties. In Washington county, for instance, the Union party leaders have been offered transportation and all kinds of money if they would come here and support the indorsement of Pattison.

Other Things to Worry Him.

Chairman Quay is not worrying about these moves. He does not believe any good Republican, however allied in a factional sense, will fail to support Judge Pennypacker.

Senator Quay will require several trunk lines of railroad and a pull with the treasury department if he satisfies the financial and transportation demands being made upon him. The senator is unable to explain why it has just dawned upon the public that he is exceptionally vulnerable to sympathetic appeal. During his official life he has never received so many requests for money and railroad passes as since he accepted the chairmanship of the Republican state committee.

Strange to say, the most of these demands come from Western Pennsylvania. Pittsburgh is well represented, as are all western counties. Oil City's claims are by no means modest. Col. Quay received a letter from an Oil City man. A promissory note for $300 was inclosed and the senator's indorsement was requested. For $200 the writer believed he could be useful in the present campaign and, incidentally, liquidate a few pressing obligations.

Five Votes to Swing.

Another instance was that of Mr. Blank of Pittsburgh. He wrote several days ago asking passes for himself, wife and three children to Parkersburg, W. Va. They were not sent. Col. Quay heard again from him. The Pittsburgher declared that he and his four brothers had decided to vote for Gov. Pattison and the remainder of the Democratic ticket.

It is needless to say that Col. Quay does not reply to these begging letters. He could not grant the requests made. Additional to the instances cited, there are hundreds of others, some from churches, while others approach him on the specialty of Andrew Carnegie and ask for church organs, libraries, etc.

In the past communications of this kind did not reach Col. Quay. His private secretary, W. F. Wright, consumed them. Mr. Wright, who has been taking a vacation in California, returned today and is again on duty. He will be expected to stand between the state chairman and those who want.

CATHOLIC BISHOPS TO NOMINATE COADJUTOR

Heads of Pennsylvania Dioceses Meet in Pittsburgh on an Important Mission.

The first of the conferences to decide on candidates for the office of coadjutor to the Rt. Rev. Bishop Richard Phelan of the Catholic diocese of Pittsburgh will be held at the episcopal residence in Grant street this morning.

Bishops E. A. Garvey of Altoona, Hoban of Scranton and Shanahan of Harrisburg arrived in Pittsburgh last night from the eastern part of the state. The other bishops who will attend the conferences will arrive in Pittsburgh today.

It was understood last night that selections had been made of the three candidates from whom will be selected a priest to fill the office. The formal recommendations must be approved by Archbishop Ryan and be sent to Rome for final action.

A magazine devoted to the history of the upper Ohio valley is to be started soon by the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania. The announcement is officially made by Secretary William T. Lyon of the society.

The officers of the society now are: President, the Rev. Father A. A. Lambing, LL. D.; secretary, William T. Lyon; treasurer, W. R. Thompson. The headquarters of the society are at the Carnegie Institute.

THRASHED MAN UNDER THE BED.

When Mrs. Mary Sodac, a Slavonic woman of Blythedale, a small mining hamlet on the Youghiogheny river, went to her room late Monday night, woman-like she looked under her bed and found a man concealed there. She did not scream or make an outcry, but promptly moved the bed and after getting hold of the man called for her husband, who was in an adjoining room. The husband proceeded to thrash the intruder, who was Andy Rumseak, also a Slav who lived nearby. Sodac yesterday went before Justice G. W. Giles of Homestead and preferred a charge of entering a building with intent to commit a felony. Rumseak will be given a hearing today.

FLINN GOES IN FOR AUTOMOBILE

TOO BUSY AS CHAFFEUR TO WASTE TIME IN POLITICS.

Senator Grady's Explanation of Retirement of Pittsburgh's Boss—New $8,000 Machine Expected to Arrive from France in Few Days.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—Senator John C. Grady tonight explained why Senator William Flinn has lost interest in politics.

"Flinn is going in for automobiling," said Grady. "While abroad, recently, he, with his brother Philip accompanied Wilson Brown of Philadelphia on an automobile ride over a good part of the continent. Flinn is always an enthusiast. On his return to Paris, so Mr. Brown informs me, Senator Flinn purchased an $8,000 machine. I don't know whether it is a 'Red Devil' or a 'White Devil,' but I do know it is the best of its kind in this country, or will be, when it lands in a day or two. It is of 40 horse power, and makes the machine of P. A. B. Widener and other notables, look like 30 cents.

"I am not an expert," continued Senator Grady, "but I know that the Philadelphia and New York nabobs are not in the Flinn auto class, and, from all I hear from Pittsburgh, my old friend Flinn needs something rather swift to divert his attention from the cruel realities of the political present."

BIG CROWDS PRESENT.

Interesting Athletic Events on the Second Night of the Irish Fair.

When the gates of the Allegheny Colosseum opened for the second night of the Irish fair all was in splendid condition, the booths having been thoroughly restocked and placed in readiness for the liberal patrons of the cause for which the amusement enterprise has been originated. Until past midnight the crowds again continued to pour into the spacious inclosure, to kiss the Blarney stone, dance to the merry tunes of the piper and see the sights in the fullest measure.

Last night's sports were somewhat curtailed owing to the immense amount of work the management has had on hand. The high-jumping, high-kicking and tug-of-war contests were postponed for the reasons noted. In their place were several warmly contested "bike" races.

The first event was a two-mile race between Hartman and Sharkey, both well-known local riders. The former won in 4:32 flat.

Event No. 2 was a five-mile motor-pace against time by Wilkie Hall. During the third lap in the third mile Hall took a bad tumble coming into the home stretch. At first it was thought he had been injured. Fortunately, though, such was not the case and with some assistance he was enabled to reach his dressing room. After a few minutes he was revived and was once more himself.

Following this came a half-mile race between Hall, McCue and Hartman. The latter crossed the line a winner by a narrow margin, McCue taking second place. Time, 1:05 flat.

Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians from all parts of Western Pennsylvania will visit the fair tonight, and for the occasion a special list of athletic events will be held. There will be tug-of-war contests, running and jumping events, pursuit races in Irish jaunting cars and many other attractions.

NEW WABASH LINE.

Company Contemplates Building a Road Through Washington, Pa.

WASHINGTON, PA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—A meeting of business men of Washington was held here last night in the interest of the project to build the Wabash railroad through this town into Greene and Fayette counties. A. N. Neeper of Pittsburgh, attorney for the Wabash system, was present. He said the plans of the company contemplate the building of the line through Washington.

J. W. Patterson, chief engineer of the Wabash, said a corps of engineers had surveyed a line from Tylerdale through Washington and found it practicable.

Chairman Brady was authorized to appoint a committee to co-operate with the railroad people. This committee is composed of Congressman E. F. Acheson, John H. Murdoch, A. B. Paxton, Col. W. P. Tyler, Charles S. Ritchie, John Slater and John M. Dunn.

Nominate Fusion Ticket.

BEDFORD, PA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The Union party of Bedford county this afternoon nominated enough Republicans and Democrats to complete a fusion ticket. The former get the offices of sheriff, one legislator, prothonotary and district attorney. Ex-Congressman Joseph E. Thropp of Everett, was indorsed for congressman. Alvin L. Little was re-elected chairman of the county committee.

Theatrical.

The engagement of Kellar at the Alvin next week promises to be a most satisfactory one. He will present a budget of new and perplexing experiments in magic as well as some illusions, fully up to his usual high standing of merit. There will be a popular priced matinee on Wednesday.

NO OUTSIDE AID FOR THE RING IN THIS CAMPAIGN

Attorney General John P. Elkin Gives Some Pertinent Advice.

THE CITIZENS COMMITTEES

Organization of Sub-Committees for Coming Battle Completed at Meeting Yesterday—Another Desertion from Coroner McGeary's Forces.

The Allegheny county ring must fight its own battle. Faithful as it was to John P. Elkin, as Gov. Stone's candidate for governor, he gives it little comfort or hope of outside aid. The attorney general was in Pittsburgh yesterday on business and met some of the machine adherents in his rounds of the downtown part of the city.

"How are you, Mr. Elkin?" said Register Fred Edwards, as he met him on the street.

"First rate, Fred. How is your campaign coming along?"

"I am going to win," said the county register.

"Well, I hope you do," said the attorney general; "but don't depend on outside aid. Get out and hustle for yourself."

With this pertinent bit of advice the subject was dropped, but it was a warning to the county ring that it will have to fight its own battle. The fight for governor this fall is most important to the Republican state organization and it has neither the disposition nor the ability to aid the Allegheny county crowd, either financially or in any other way. By so doing the state organization would take up the burden of the Stone administration, which was repudiated at the state convention.

The attorney general's advice has another significant meaning. The Union party will not allow its place on the ballot to be filled with a mongrel ticket, headed by the Democratic state nominees and filled out with the ring ticket in this county or with any other set of nominees. The Union party will indorse Judge Pennypacker. Whatever his faults, Elkin's warning shows how the wind is blowing.

Mr. Elkin's Joke.

The attorney general was asked what his functions as member at large of the state committee would be, but dodged by saying:

"I guess we don't have any. I am going to the state committee meeting next Wednesday, and probably will know more about the situation when I return."

"Are you laboring with the Union party leaders to pursuade them to indorse Pennypacker?"

The expression on the attorney general's face as he answered this query was one of enjoyment. "No, the other fellows will have to attend to that."

The Citizens party committee of 32 completed the organization of the sub-committees for the fall campaign work at a meeting yesterday afternoon. The work will begin on September 1, and will be carried on steadily thereafter. The ward and district organizations are reported as being in good shape and ready for active work. William Hays will be the head of the executive committee in direct control of the campaign, while Thomas S. Bigelow will be chairman of the finance committee. E. L. Braun will head the committee on organization, Charles S. Crawford that of speakers, W. S. Haynes, meetings and literature, and Harry Moore that of campaign work.

A feature of the meeting yesterday afternoon was the appearance of Deputy Coroner Louis Huckel at Citizens headquarters. Coroner Jesse McGeary a few days ago said his force must remain loyal, and the desertion of Huckel to the Citizens party probably will cast a heavy gloom over the headquarters of the Relatives' Office Holding Trust.

Huckel made a dramatic announcement of his new allegiance by grasping a handful of Citizens buttons and turning to the newspaper men present with the words: "You can make a note of this." He has been the right-hand man of the coroner and has considerable political influence.

The machine is in a desperate plight. As a last resort it has been proposed to deprive of a vote at the next Republican primaries every man who does not vote for the ring ticket this fall. This is to be accomplished by a change in the rules of the county committee. It is doubtful if a quorum of the committee can be gathered at present, and it is still more doubtful if they would obey instructions on this point.

To Arrange Details.

The Citizens committees on speakers and meetings will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock to arrange the details of some of the earlier campaign meetings.

Last night the Citizens of the Thirteenth ward held a meeting at their headquarters, No. 2409 Wylie avenue, and elected the following officers of the ward organization: J. I. McDonough, president; J. McCullough, vice president; J. W. Gatewood and C. D. Shelton, secretaries; David Jenkins, treasurer.

The full sub-committees named by the Citizens executive committee are given below:

BRIDE AND HER SISTER BROUGHT GROOM TO ALTAR.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Thomas Stealy and Ella Sams were to be married at noon today. The guests were present and the feast was spread, but the groom had indulged too freely and was making merry downtown.

The bride-elect and her sister got into a carriage and found the prospective groom, who climbed upon a railroad bridge and ran half way across to escape them. They followed him, captured him and took him to the house, where the wedding took place a few hours later.

PRESIDENT BURT IS UNDER ARREST

CHARGED WITH FALSE IMPRISONMENT OF EMPLOYES.

Ten Men Claim That They Were Locked in Union Pacific Car Which Was Taken to Omaha When They Expected to Work in Denver.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

OMAHA, NEB., Aug. 26.—Ten warrants were served on President Burt of the Union Pacific Railroad Company this afternoon, charging him, jointly with W. Arnett, an Indianapolis labor agent, with false imprisonment.

The warrants were sworn out by 10 men who allege they were hired by Arnett to work in the shops of the Union Pacific road at Denver.

President Burt filed a bond for his appearance in court tomorrow.

Lewis Lord of the party who swore to the charges in one of the warrants, said the men had been employed by Arnett to go to work in the Union Pacific shops at Denver. He says that when they reached Council Bluffs they were locked in the car and armed guards were placed at the doors to prevent their escape.

He says they were kept in the car until they reached the shop yards in this city, when they were given their liberty. Lord declares some of the men had left positions to take others here, and were told that no strike existed on the railroad.

THE JOLLY GRASS WIDOWS.

Pretty Faces and Plenty of Fun Enliven Academy Stage.

It may be considered something of a misfortune that the Fulton aggregation of jolly funmakers at the Academy were omitted yesterday from the weekly review of the theaters, because this well-known manager of vaudeville and burlesque shows doubtless has outdone even his best efforts in the company that he has selected this year. Besides being far and away the most handsomely staged of any of the well-known Fulton pieces it has also some very pretty, fresh-faced girls who engage in a hilarious tempest of fun. If the jokes are a little old in some places they bear the regular Fulton stamp for excellence.

Carrie Fulton, Madamoiselle Dilki, George McFarland and M. Paula are some of the well-known burlesquers in the aggregation, and both olio and after pieces are fully up to the best standard for those who really enjoy a really rattling good burlesque with more than the usual share of novelties and fun.

CORNER STONE LAID.

East End Colored Baptists to Have a New House of Worship.

The corner stone of the Rodman street Baptist church, colored, was laid last night. The ceremonies were under the auspices of Liberty lodge, No. 2340, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows. The Rev. R. S. Laws preached the sermon and other ministers assisting were the Revs. A. M. Lewis, D. S. Scott, J. W. Webb, J. M. Payne, J. C. Paulton, M. L. Harney and H. Holman. Two thousand dollars was asked for and the contributions and pledges made last night insure collection of this sum within two weeks. The building is to cost $45,000.

The Rodman street church was organized out of split in the old Sloam, now the Carron street Baptist church, in 1887.

HIBERNIANS TO ASSEMBLE AT OLD CITY HALL

Ladies' Auxiliary Will Present Them American and Irish Flags.

BANQUET WILL FOLLOW

James Francis Burke Will Offer the Flags for the Ladies and President Horgan Will Accept—Intent of Order Which Is 400 Years Old.

Division No. 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, has completed arrangements for a great celebration at Old City hall Saturday night. There will be a presentation from the ladies' auxiliary No. 1 of a handsome American and an Irish flag. Afterward members of Division No. 4 and invited guests will participate at a banquet at the Hotel Henry.

Cornelius Horgan.

The general committee of the division met at Shapira's hall and settled on some of the plans. The following committee will represent the ladies' auxiliary at the presentation: Miss Margaret O'Mealy, president; Miss Mary Cruden, vice president; Miss Annie McNamara, secretary, and Miss Margaret McNamara, treasurer.

James Francis Burke will make the presentation speech in behalf of the ladies. President Cornelius Horgan of division No. 4 will reply in acceptation. The general committee arranged an interesting musical program last night. Leading members of Marquette council, Young Men's Institute, will participate. J. B. Buckley will present Irish comedian sketches. Arthur P. Hughes, tenor, will sing Irish melodies. Lloyd Boggers, basso, will sing sentimental ballads. These members of the council will be accompanied on the piano by Miss Essie Buckley. Miss Alice Bridge will give a piano rendition of some of the songs that never die. "The Star Spangled Banner," "Home, Sweet Home," and others. J. B. Martin will render descriptive songs.

The Rev. C. J. Coyne, pastor of St. Francis De Salle's church, McKees Rocks, will deliver his lecture on "Citizenship." At the banquet to follow Thomas L. Dillon will be toastmaster.

At the general meeting in Old City hall the Young Men's Institute, Catholic Mutual Beneficial association and Knights of St. John will be represented, besides large delegations representing the Ancient Order of Hibernians from Braddock, Homestead, McKeesport and other near points. The meeting will be open to the public, with a limited number of seats reserved under an admission fee. The committee on arrangements consists of Francis E. Carroll, chairman, John Power, secretary and treasurer; James McVerry, David Quinlan, Michael J. Dempsey and Michael Abbott. The reception committee is made up of Cornelius Horgan, Thomas L. Dillon and William Magarell.

The celebration arises from the fact that the boat excursion of the division on August 10 was so crowded that the flag presentation had to be delayed. There were 1,600 people aboard the Beauty, and hundreds expecting to join the excursion at Twenty-second street and Homestead were disappointed.

In discussing the event last night Chairman Carroll said: "These meetings are planned to give the public some idea of what we are trying to do to further patriotic citizenship. Our order has existed for 400 years, and is little understood. Strong religious fervor, along with love of freedom, has crystalized in that patriotism which has given to the world its best and most gallant men. In the pages of American history how many of our greatest men were Irishmen or sons of Irishmen? Our order has today the unqualified approval of the church. In Great Britain and America we number many thousands."

Nearly all have self-adjusting springs on lid—making them easy to open and close. BLUE AND GRAY TO BE REUNITED AT CALIFORNIA

Ex-Confederates Failed to Come Yesterday Because of Belated Train.

EXPECTED EARLY TODAY

Ringgold Cavalry and McNeil's Rangers, Who Were Foes During the Civil War in Many Warm Engagements, to Meet as Friends.

By ROBERT WRAY,
Staff Correspondent.

California, Pa., Aug. 26.—Just as the sun was setting a number of cannon on the banks of the Monongahela boomed what was supposed to be a glorious welcome for the veterans of the Ringgold cavalry and McNeil's rangers, famous war organizations which are to hold an annual reunion here tomorrow. The majority of each organization was expected to arrive in California at 6:40 this evening, but owing to bad railroad connections none reached town tonight. The welcome from the cannon was premature.

California is in holiday attire. Streamers bearing words of welcome to the veterans are stretched across all the principal streets and flags are floating everywhere. At the corner of Third and Union streets is a large arch in which are fine portraits of Abraham Lincoln and William McKinley.

Capt. Jesse McNeil, who with his father organized McNeil's rangers in Missouri at the outbreak of the civil war, arrived here this morning and has been in conference with the general committee on arrangements all day. Maj. James B. Hart of the Ringgold battalion, Twenty-second Pennsylvania cavalry, also is here and has rendered valuable assistance in completing arrangements.

The confederate veterans met at Cumberland, Md., early this morning and started at once for California. Instead of arriving this evening they will not get in until 8:40 o'clock tomorrow morning. A committee of several members of the Ringgold cavalry in command of Maj. Hart and Capt. McNeil went to Brownsville this afternoon to meet the confederates and escort them to California. A report from Uniontown said the confederates had missed their connection and would not be able to reach California tonight and the reception party was compelled to return here late tonight.

Today was the first time since the close of the civil war that Maj. Hart and Capt. McNeil had seen each other. They first met in the field and fought many warm engagements. The hardest fighting the two organizations saw was in West Virginia, where many members of both commands were in battle.

The official program will begin tomorrow morning with the arrival of the veterans. A street parade will form when the train reaches the railroad station. President David Phillips of the Battalion Reunion association will make the first speech and the address of welcome will be delivered by Dr. Theodore B. Noss, president of California Normal school. Lieut. F. H. Crago will make the address on behalf of the union soldiers and Capt. Jesse McNeil will speak for the confederates. The Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Leek, pastor of the Oakland Methodist Episcopal church, Pittsburgh, will make the principal address of the day. A grand campfire in the evening will close the reunion.

Pittsburgh Party Leaves for Washington After Pleasant Visit at Seaside—Busy Shoplifters.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—After a brief but pleasant visit at the seashore, 57 Pittsburgh agents of the Equitable Life Assurance society left Atlantic City today for Washington. From the capital they will go to Old Point Comfort and Norfolk, then take an ocean trip to New York and remain there until Sunday, when they will return to Pittsburgh. Edward A. Wood is in charge of the tourists.

Shoplifters Get Busy.

For several days shoplifters have been operating along the boardwalk, principally in the stores between Massachusetts and Kentucky avenues, and have carried off considerable booty. The belief that work was done by a gang rather than a single thief is deduced from the fact that most of the stealing was done within a short time, and yet done very thoroughly. In every case where cash was taken, suspicion fell on a man who answered to the same description. Detectives are searching for the thieves.

After a six-days' struggle with striking machinists of the Pennsylvania Engineering Company at New Castle the strike was broken and the men will go to work this morning under the scale agreed upon by the Pittsburgh machinists, giving the men an advance of 5 per cent.

GIVES CHAFFEUR AN AUTOMOBILE

SCHWAB FINDS HE OWNS ONE MORE THAN HE SUPPOSES.

Does Not Like to Sell Old Friends So Keeps It in Family by Giving It to Block—He Still Has Three More Left.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Julian Block, a chauffeur to C. M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel Corporation, is probably the happiest man on the broad Atlantic. Just before he sailed Mr. Schwab presented to Block an automobile worth $10,000, because he did not like its looks.

When Mr. Schwab came to New York from his father's home at Loretto, Pa., last week to prepare for his trip to Europe, he had a consultation with his chauffeur regarding his automobiles. It is said that Mr. Schwab was surprised when he learned that he owned four of them.

"Since I have so many, suppose we take a look at them," he said to Block, and they went to the automobile station. The newest of the four was a 45-horsepower of the same type in which Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair were riding when they were killed in France. Then there was a 42-horsepower machine of the same make and pattern and an electric automobile of 12-horsepower. The last was of 10-horsepower.

Mr. Schwab did not recognize the smallest as his own property. It seemed insignificant alongside the other monsters.

"Who owns that machine?" asked Mr. Schwab.

"Why, that is your old one," said Block.

"So it is," said Mr. Schwab, "but I guess I'll sell. No, I won't; I don't like the idea of throwing over old friends for new. We'll keep it in the family. It is yours. I present it to you."

WRECK ON THE WEST PENN

Broken Axle Causes a Smashup That Delayed Traffic Several Hours. Narrow Escape of Brakeman.

A heavily loaded freight train, going east, was wrecked last night about 7 o'clock on the West Penn railroad at Sumner station, near Nineteenth street, Sharpsburg. Two brakemen, Milton Reed of Millvale and James Williams of Allegheny saved themselves from injury by jumping from the wrecked cars.

The wreck was caused by a broken axle on a car in the center of a long string of freight cars. This caused the rails to spread and soon cars were piled up, completely blocking both the eastbound and westbound tracks.

Six cars were completely destroyed, and one large box car was thrown over a high embankment. The Springdale accommodation was held up and the passengers were compelled to take the street cars to the city.

Excitement was caused in Sharpsburg by a report that the wrecked cars were oil cars.

CHAUTAUQUA.

Women Give Great Ovation to the Rev. Charles W. Gordon.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The final address in the series by the Rev. Charles W. Gordon ("Charles Conner") was given today, his subject being "The Chivalry of Jesus." In their enthusiasm several of the women addressed the author-lecturer as "Mr. Connor," and the unconscious compliment made him blush like a schoolgirl.

Dr. James Harding Montgomery, vice president and professor of physics and chemistry in Allegheny college, gave an illustrated lecture on "Light and Color," showing the relation of the two and giving many fine illustrations by stereopticon, spectroscope and otherwise. Dr. Montgomery was among the earliest physicists to give successful public illustrations of photography in color, having shown some specimens of true color photographs at Chautauqua several years ago.

The first of a series of three lectures on "A Journey Through the Jewish World" was given today by the Rev. Dr. Edward Steiner on the subject "From the Talmud to the Poets of the Ghetto." Dr. Steiner said the Talmud is a closed book to all alien minds. It is made up of a mixture of exceedingly refined and argumental discussions of the books of the law in the Old Testament, of Hebrew poetry and of mysticism, and would be, to our minds, like the Encyclopedia Brittanica not put in alphabetical order.

TEACHERS HEAR BRIGHT PAPERS ON THEIR WORK

Second Day's Session of Allegheny County Teachers' Institute.

BERKEY ON HOME STUDY

That Topic and Other Interesting Ones Ably Discussed, Make the Day Pass Quickly—Supt. Hamilton Well Pleased.

A largely increased attendance was a feature of the second day's session of the Allegheny County Teachers' institute in Pittsburgh Carnegie Music hall, Schenley park. Nearly 1,200 teachers were enrolled. The directors' session will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Dr. Lincoln Hulley of Lewisburg, Pa., devoted half an hour yesterday morning to a talk on the poet of childhood, Eugene Field. He quoted generously from the most familiar poems of Field and laughter and tears mingled in the big audience.

"The Course of Study Enriched and Simplified" was the title of an address by Superintendent J. M. Berkey of Johnstown. He said:

"The course of study in the common schools can be enriched by having in it that which will help the child to understand and appreciate his environment, and by teaching that which is directly practical and useful, not merely for its actual value in everyday life, but for its good use in inspiring higher culture. This will be aided by the methodical teaching of the best literature."

Dr. S. D. Fess of Ada, O., spoke at length on the life of James Madison, confining his remarks particularly to that statesman's work in framing the constitution of the United States, and his unqualified support of the doctrine of national unity as opposed to the theory of states' rights.

"The School at Home" was the subject taken by Supt. J. M. Berkey of Johnstown. He pointed out the value of the teacher's influence being extended into the home life of the pupils and brought forward many plans by which this can be accomplished. He said teachers ought to get better acquainted with the parents.

He did not think home study should be taken up during the first and third school years, believing the children should be free to do as they wished out of school, but considered that some work should be required in the fourth fifth and sixth years. The seventh, eighth and ninth years he considered a period when home study should be carefully planned and executed.

Dr. S. D. Fess of Ada, O., talked on "Cabinet Governments." He pointed out the difference existing between cabinet members in this country and in England.

Dr. Lincoln Hulley of Lewisburg spoke on the relations between geography and history, showing that cities are built where they appear on the map because of some particular industry which developed from conditions existing at that point.

The distress, apprehension, inconvenience and danger of Asthma can all be overcome by Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant if administered according to directions.

ANDREW HASKINS IS CAPTURED IN THE QUAKER CITY

Warrant Issued Charging Him With the Murder of Ella Dennis.

THREE YEARS HAVE FLED

Detective James Steele of Allegheny, Gets a Clue and Runs Down the Fugitive—Previous Attempts Had Failed.

Armed with a warrant for the arrest of Andrew Haskins, who is wanted in this county for the murder of Ella Dennis of Dookers Hollow on October 5, 1899, City Detective James Steele left Allegheny yesterday morning and last night word was received from Philadelphia that he had landed his man. In a special telegram from Philadelphia it was stated that Haskins had admitted assaulting the woman, but he says he thought she had recovered. Haskins has been at liberty for four years.

Haskins' sweetheart, Ella Dennis, was ill at the time of the murder and was also penniless. While dying she steadily refused to reveal the name of her assailant, but just before she died she admitted that Haskins had struck and abused her. He escaped from this county when he learned the precarious condition of his former sweetheart.

The tragedy was almost forgotten. Last week City Detective James Steele learned of Haskins' whereabouts and went to Coroner Jesse M. McGeary, who issued a warrant for Haskins' arrest. The detective secured the warrant from Coroner McGeary yesterday morning and left Allegheny immediately.

Haskins was a free and easy sort of a character, having no steady employment. Ella Dennis had similar habits. On October 3, 1899, she was taken ill and while in that condition Haskins beat her. She lay alone with no attendance that night and the next day her case was reported to the authorities. Braddock police investigated the affair and she was sent to the county home.

The Braddock police learned, through some of her neighbors, that Haskins was responsible for her death. With this information, County Detective Robert G. Robinson went to the county home and got the woman to admit that Haskins had struck her. Almost immediately after making this confession she died.

Several reports of Haskins' whereabouts were made to the police of Allegheny, but they were never able to capture him.

Only Two Per Cent of English Workmen Object to Cut in Wages. Miners Worst Hit.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The annual report of the labor department of the board of trade records decline in the wages bill of the United Kingdom for the first time since 1886.

The decrease was mostly in miners' wages, no less than 625,000 miners being affected during the first half of 1902.

The report says it is satisfactory to note the increased tendency to settle changes of wages by arbitration.

Keep Your Insides Cool!

Here's a man who thinks he has heart disease, and is scared half to death. His face is all drawn out of shape from fear and agony. Every time he eats, his heart "palpitates"—that simply means that his stomach is swelled up with gases from fermenting undigested food, and his heart thumps against his diaphragm. Nothing the matter with his heart. In the summer time, this gas distention is much worse, his whole body and blood get over-heated, and his heart and lungs get so crowded for room, that he gasps for breath. There he is, look at him! Every minute he expects to drop dead. As a matter of fact, all he needs is to stop that souring and gas forming in his stomach and bowels, help his digestion along, and keep cool inside. You all know that whenever something rots or decays, heat develops. Same in the body. Keep cool inside! Take a candy cathartic CASCARET every night at bed-time. It will work while you sleep, clean up and cool your insides, give you a regular, comfortable movement in the morning, and you'll be feeling fine all day every day. Heart Disease! Fudge!

ACCUSED OF ARSON TO SETTLE A GRUDGE

Thomas Mason Charged With Setting Fire to the Fort Pitt Incline.

Because he was unable to collect several months' wages due him for operating the engines of the old Bluff street incline, Thomas Mason of No. 915 Locust street, it is charged, tried to burn the incline Monday at midnight. He is now in the Central police station on a charge of arson preferred by Capt. Charles K. Gallant. Mason promised the police that he would tell his story at the proper time.

Mason was embittered by his loss. This incline was abandoned over a year ago, and the company owed him several weeks' wages. He entered proceedings to collect them but failed.

Monday night Blanche Rosen of No. 1 Bluff street was sitting on the porch with her friend, Joseph Cohen of Washington street. She has a candy and cigar store in the old waiting room of the incline. She closed the place about 9 o'clock to visit with her friend. About midnight they noticed a blaze breaking out in front of the candy store. Just before that they saw Mason running from the direction. They hurried to the store, but after hard work extinguished the flames, but the front of the store was destroyed. The police yesterday morning found a quantity of waste and some chip barrels which had been saturated with coal oil, lying just in the rear of the store. Charred pieces of baskets were found.

Watson to Oppose Sibley.

WARREN, PA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The Democratic congressional conferees of the Twenty-eighth district met this afternoon and placed in nomination J. P. Watson of Martinville and Dr. Salem Hellman of Sharon to oppose Joseph Sibley for congress. Mr. Watson secured the votes from Elk, Forest and Venango counties, while Mercer and Warren counties voted for Dr. Hellman.

BURGESS HORNER STILL BELLIGERENT

Wilkinsburg's Municipal Head Serves Notice That He Intends to Institute Reprisals.

Alderman William Robinson, of the Thirty-seventh ward yesterday fined 42 Wilkinsburg merchants $5, charged with failing to secure city vehicle licenses. Fines and costs were remitted, with the exception of constables' costs. No appeal was taken.

Burgess James Horner continues indignant over the situation and last night addressed a letter to Robert H. Lindsay, ordinance officer of Pittsburgh, asking him whether he intended to repudiate an agreement which Horner alleges was made between them during May, 1900. In part Horner writes as follows:

"There are at least 50 wagons from Pittsburgh and the East End coming into Wilkinsburg where one of our wagons goes into Pittsburgh. I hereby give the city of Pittsburgh notice that if it intends to violate this agreement I will place officers on every street leading into the borough and arrest them all right along, whether they have a Pittsburgh plate on their vehicles or not."

OBJECT LESSON AWAITS HIM.

Burton and Fellow Committeemen Could See Things at Their Worst Now.

Congressman Theodore E. Burton, chairman of the congressional rivers and harbors committee, whose presence in the city is anticipated, has not yet announced the date of his coming. He is expected some time early in September.

Capt. John F. Dravo, secretary of the coal exchange, says Mr. Burton will be handsomely entertained along with other members of the committee The Ohio river is now lower than it has been at any time this year, and its condition will be quite an object lesson. Steamers worth thousands of dollars and other floating craft are idle because there is no improved river to move the commerce waiting shipment.

FOOD SAVED HER.

That Is the True Cure for Most Everything.

A food that will help the babies and the grown folks, too, is worth knowing of and keeping in the family.

A mother in Woonsocket, R. I., says: "I have been a user of Grape-Nuts Food for quite a long time, but never thought of giving it to baby until we had a dreadful time with her.

"We tried three kinds of baby food and condensed milk, but nothing seemed to agree with her, and at seven months she weighed not quite 10 pounds. We were puzzled to know what to do, when one day husband said, 'Do you ever try Grape-Nuts?' I thought she would throw up that food like she did the others, but to our great joy the softened food agreed with her perfectly.

"She has been using it for about five months now and, at a year old, she weighs 19½ pounds, has eight teeth and her flesh and little body is as firm and round as can be. She walks from chair to chair.

"Meeting the doctor the other day I said, 'What do you think of her now?' He said, 'She don't look like the same baby. What do you feed her?' I said, 'Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food.' The proof of its value is perfectly clear. She is a wonder, everyone says that saw her some months ago. I cannot praise Grape-Nuts enough. Please do not publish my name." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

AIMING TO BE BIGGEST PAINT MANUFACTURERS

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company to Extend Operations on Large Scale.

WHAT STOCK SALE MEANS

New Works to Be Operated at Newark, N. J., Will Produce 2,500 Gallons Daily—Additions Being Made to the Warehouses.

The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company has made plans to become one of the greatest paint manufacturers in the country. The company also will branch into other lines in connection with building supplies. Ultimately all of the proceeds of the sale last year of $2,500,000 of new stock will be expended in extending operations.

The company is building at Newark, N. J., a large modern plant. This is being done by the Patton Paint Company, owned by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company. The Newark works will have a capacity of 2,500 gallons daily. It will employ about 200 people and with its completion the output of paint by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company will be doubled. This will supply the material for all paint sales of the plate glass company.

There are further tentative plans for expansion in paint manufacture by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company.

The paint production is expected to give the company returns which will more than meet any losses in the plate glass buiness, said to be profitless in the smaller sizes.

The Newark paint works are well under way. The cost will be about $120,000. It is expected they will be ready for operation about December 1, giving the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, with the Patton plant at Milwaukee, both eastern and western markets.

Contracts have been let by the plate glass company for the erection of extensive warehouses at Kansas City. New warehouses at Atlanta, Ga., are nearing completion. This gives the company 20 warehouses and one more is planned for another southern city. The existing warehouses are at New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia, Rochester, Buffalo, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Minneapolis, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Davenport (Ia.), Omaha, St. Paul, Milwaukee, Atlanta and Greensboro (N. C.).

The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company now has 10 producing factories in steady operation. Much of the overproduction has been curtailed through an agreement with the independent producers.

TWELVE PAGES.

For Want of Terminals.

While the output of locomotive engines in this country is statistically enormous, it has been apparent for some time that Pittsburgh has not enough of them to move its tonnage. Motive power is not all of the trouble, however. Terminal facilities are sadly lacking. Anyone who will travel on the railroads leading out from this city will see much idle motive power these days, waiting for yard room to put in trains, or waiting for opportunity to get into a yard to take a train out. It is not a rare sight to see as many as twenty fully equipped trains stored on regular operating tracks because side tracks are crowded or inaccessible, though furnaces are being banked because those very trains cannot be moved.

Last spring The Gazette pointed out clearly the causes of the blockade and warned the railroads that midsummer or fall would bring them to a worse condition than last year unless they took immediate steps to increase their yards and terminals. That was not an idle precaution. It is being verified. The anthracite coal strike has caused an increased demand upon the Pittsburgh district for bituminous coal for both eastern and western markets. That business is added to the flood that was already beyond the ability of the railroads to care for.

Root and the Supreme Bench.

The Baltimore American denounces as "absurd" a report from Washington that the president may appoint Secretary Root to the supreme bench to succeed Justice Shiras when the latter retires. Really, though, there is nothing absurd in the report, even when it is stated in connection with it that the appointment would be made as "an official vindication" of the secretary's Philippine policy. It would be that in a sense, but it would be more, for Secretary Root measures up the requirements of the position. His conduct of Philippine affairs, if nothing else, is proof of it.

It has taxed more than mere administrative capacity to successfully manage the problems involved in governing our distant possessions. The questions arising called for legal learning and ability of a high order, and Secretary Root has been equal to proper solution of them. The war department has had to deal with matters that do not ordinarily fall to the portion of that branch of government, and none but one of calm judicial mind could have successfully coped with them, even with the advice of so able an attorney general as his associate in the president's cabinet. Therefore it would not be either surprising or absurd if in recognition of such services, and even in "vindication" of them, the president should elevate his secretary of war to the bench of the highest court.

Justice Shiras on Arbitration.

There is food for thought in Justice Shiras' discussion of the arbitration of labor disputes. The justice naturally favors arbitration, the peaceable means dictated by modern civilization for the settlement of controversies as opposed to the strike, lockout and other savage means sanctioned in crude states of society. Mr. Shiras sees one bar to the general adoption of the system—the fact that labor unions are not incorporated to assure the enforcement of contracts.

Applying Justice Shiras' logic to the troubles in the anthracite coal field, it is plain the differences there should have been submitted long ago to an impartial court. The struggle inaugurated upon the refusal of the operators to accept arbitration has grown more bitter from day to day, until labor and capital which should always be friends are sworn enemies. It is impossible yet to say what deplorable consequences the strike may have. The feeling is so tense that neither party to the dispute is willing to admit any human right possessed by the other, or to make a concession toward a compromise.

Meantime the inoffending consumer suffers in common with the belligerents. The consumer represents more than the mere users of anthracite coal, for the ramifications of modern society bring so many people into intimate relations that the injury of one is the injury of all. It is this fact that makes arbitration the sensible resort of civilized peoples—a means by which the consumer's side may have as much weight as that of employer or employed.

More Wise Utterances.

President Roosevelt continues talking to New England on the state of the country and the matters of state that are dearest to his heart. His words find an answering echo in the minds of his hearers and those of thousands of readers throughout the country. Yesterday a visit to the home of ex-Gov. Allen of Porto Rico gave suggestion for a discussion of the results of the war with Spain. Of Cuba he said he hoped the United States would deal generously with it, not confining itself to mere duty. A liberal policy would redound to the advantage of this country as well as to the island.

That sentiment was approved in Massachusetts, as it has been and will continue to be in other states. Strictly construed, the duty of America was discharged with the liberation and reconstruction of Cuba. But the Platt amendment has laid an additional obligation upon our shoulders. The taking of naval stations in Cuban territory and the assumption of the right to control Cuban finances and diplomatic relations imposes the fair return of favorable trade relations that will build up the industries of the new republic.

Not less popular will be the president's sentiment concerning the navy at the home of Secretary Moody. He spoke accurately when he said it was the wish of every American to have "the navy first-class in every respect." It is a powerful influence for preserving the national peace, and as such is worth every effort to make it perfect. But failing to secure peace, the navy must be depended upon very largely to defend the country in time of war. In every war the nation has had the navy played a very important part and always acquitted itself with highest honors.

In fact, the president has, on this tour, proven himself a forcible speechmaker as well as a sensible thinker. In him are combined cautious regard for the welfare of the people, courage to meet evils that may arise and vigor to deal with any subject that may demand executive action.

Hill in the Saddle.

The circumstance that David B. Hill dominated and in truth was the Democratic state committee meeting at Saratoga on Saturday, prophesies his complete control of the New York Democratic state convention and establishes him as the director of the Democratic party of the Empire state. This means the rejuvenation of the party and the approaching elimination of Bryanism. It is not the program of Mr. Hill, able politician that he is, to kick the Bryan men out of the party, for he knows the value of votes. His public utterances have been all of a conciliatory character, and his evident intention is to keep the Bryanites in the fold while eliminating Bryanism. At the Tilden club dinner he formulated a platform of principles that almost any Democrat could stand on—even Bryan. But while Bryan could accept every doctrine enunciated in it, he rejected it because of what it left unsaid. When the proper time comes such following as Bryan has in New York may do the same, but when the test comes the Hill machine will control the situation and Bryanism will be a vanishing quantity. After that the Democratic party will again become something to reckon with.

Let no one minimize the importance of the reappearance of Hill in active politics. That the rejuvenation is but an evidence of a general movement within the organization is sufficiently indicated by the appearance of Arthur Pue Gorman at Saratoga to confer with the New York leader as he grasped the reins of control. Their ambitions may run counter to each other, but they are united now for one common purpose. They will travel together for its attainment, and after that will contest for the fruits.

A Matter of Public Concern.

In the correspondence between President Baer of the Reading railroad and an advocate of concessions to the miners, which has been referred to in these columns, Mr. Baer told his correspondent: "You are evidently prejudiced in your religious views in favor of the right of the workingman to control a business in which he has no other interest than to secure fair wages for the work he does." As a matter of fact there was nothing in the letter of the man who wrote Mr. Baer that gave reasonable color to this deduction. It may be, however, that Mr. Baer knew whereof he spoke, but there is nothing aside from what Mr. Baer may know privately to show that the miners have sought either to control the corporations concerned in the strike or to secure an unfair rate of wages. But that aside, it is worth while for President Baer and the presidents of the railroads, the naturally stronger parties in the dispute, to consider whether their present course is not so provocative of a power whose only present interest in a business it does not control is to secure coal that it may devise means to compel in its own interest settlement of disputes of the nature of the coal strike. A way to this end has been pointed out by the Illinois jurist, who declares that the law-making power of Pennsylvania has the right to rise superior to the the disputants in the anthracite strike and prescribe conditions under which coal shall be mined. So long as a dispute between capital and labor proceeds no further than the injury of the disputants it is a matter of small public concern, but when it proceeds to such an extreme as to be a national injury, it becomes of great public importance, and the public has a right to interfere, not in the interest of capital, not in the interest of labor, but in its own interest. People who are not biased in favor of the right of the workingman to control, and even those who are convinced of the right of the owner of property to control it, will agree with this view. As a matter of fact the anthracite strike is going on to the injury of the capital and labor involved as well as to the injury of larger communities, and for the benefit of no one. It is no longer a question of private rights and the only reason there has been no public interference is because the legal machinery is not provided. The continuance of the strike, however, impresses the need.

End of the Vacation Period.

The great volume of travel has changed its course during the past week, and before the end of another week, and before the end of another thousands of returned vacationists, bronzed by outings at seaside or in mountains and ready to take up again the serious duties of life. The season has been a remarkable one from more points of view than that of the weather. In this respect there has really been little use for going away from home. So far as climate conditions are concerned Pittsburgh has been as fine a summer resort as one might wish.

The cool weather, however, has not materially lessened the desire on the part of the people to get away for a vacation, though it has served to curtail to some extent the pleasures of those who have gone away. It is reasonable to expect an early approach of fall weather, so the returning vacationists may turn at once to the duties that await them with a sense of encouragement and satisfaction. There is every promise of plenty to do.

Business conditions present a fine outlook. The entire country, barring the labor disturbances in the coal fields, is preparing for a fall and winter season of trade unprecedented in volume. The vigor and health gained by the vacation will be added to the sum total of new energy that will be injected into every kind of business and industry, giving fresh impetus to effort. The returning tourists furnish the best modern proof to the old proverb that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

All-Night Saloons.

While Superintendent McAleese will not commit himself to the plan of having a few all-night saloons, with refreshment accommodations attached, he is evidently of the opinion that such an experiment, if "properly conducted," might prove of advantage to many people and not increase the amount of night-drinking on the part of those who habitually frequent saloons. The discussion of the subject, in connection with the announced purpose of the police superintendent to suppress, as far as possible, all forms of vice in the city, has developed the belief that around the regulation of the sale of liquor revolves the really serious problems that must be faced by the police department in its promised attempt to break up lawlessness.

The superintendent touches the heart of the question of having all-night saloons when he says "properly conducted." Whether the all-night saloon will add materially to the opportunities for drinking and hence the occasion for greater disorder at night is to be considered. Can the all-night saloon be so conducted as to render it a useful institution and a well-regulated offset to the speakeasy with its dangerous defiance of law and order?

MILLIONS READY FOR MAKING MORE

New Yorkers Dig Down in Their Jeans to Build Great Tunnel.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Aug. 26.

Money talks in tunnel building as in any other great enterprise. It is estimated that it will require $35,000,000 for the building of the projected tunnel from Manhattan to Brooklyn, connecting with the underground rapid transit system. The Inter-Borough Rapid Transit Company, which has the Brooklyn tunnel in hand, had estimated that $25,000,000 would cover the expense. On looking over the ground a little closer, however, it was decided that that sum would not be sufficient, and at a meeting today in the offices of August Belmont it was voted to increase the capital stock $10,000,000. One hundred thousand shares will be issued at $100 par value. The ease with which $10,000,000 can be raised nowadays for public improvements is one of the indications of national prosperity that are self-evident. Greater New York is deeply interested in its underground rapid transit system. It is willing to spend $35,000,000 at any time to promote improvements in that system. Everyday experience impresses the resident of this city that there is no more room for street railways on top of earth in the city limits, and that the only feasible way of showing the vast population from place to place is to do it underground. It will be only a few years before all the underground roads devised will be in operation and then the stockholder will be pluming himself on his sagacity in investing in a few $100 shares when he had the opportunity. With the Brooklyn bridge more congested every day, and serious doubts raised as to whether the structure is strong enough to support the weight of the present traffic, to say nothing of increasing it, the importance of a tunnel under the East river is equaled only by the necessity of getting it through as rapidly as possible.

Chappies Dealing in Stocks.

There is a revival of the fad of wearing a "stock" instead of a collar to be noted among the chappies of Broadway. While it may be doubted whether a heavy roll of cloth around one's neck is cooler than the ordinary collar and necktie it is evident that some of the young men who like to be different from their fellows are willing to suffer a little for the sake of sustaining their reputation for being up to date. It is true that many of the stock wearers are unmistakable actors, but then where will you find an individual more up to date than an actor with a season's contract in his pocket?

Chance to Start New Family Name.

Here is a chance for some one with money to acquire a ferry franchise. That of the Forty-second street ferry from New York to Weehawken will be sold at auction on Monday, September 8, the term will be 10 years and the upset price $10,000. There is money in a well-conducted ferry. Proofs of this was afforded by old Commodore Vanderbilt early in the last century, for not only was the old man himself wealthy, but he left so much money behind him that one of his great grandsons yesterday was able to give an entertainment for a few hours that cost $25,000 or so, without feeling the expense for a moment. History says that Commodore Vanderbilt's ferry between New York and Staten Island was nothing like as elaborate as this at Forty-second street, and probably he did not carry as many passengers in all his career as this modern ferry line in six months. With this in mind there should be spirited bidding for the Forty-second street ferry franchise on Monday week.

Ocean Speed Still Goes.

Already there are denials from an authoritative source that there is nothing in the report that the speed of ocean greyhounds across the Atlantic is to be reduced, with the object of saving 50 per cent of the cost of operation. The authority quoted as making the denial is John Lee, New York agent of the White Star line.

Bishop Farley's Promotion Popular.

The probability that Mgr. John Farley, auxiliary bishop of New York, will soon be made archbishop to succeed the late Archbishop Corrigan, meets with general favor here. New York has become a stronghold of Catholicism, and the filling of the important position as the head of the church in this dioces interests Protestants as well as Catholics. Word has been received from Rome that the congregation of the propaganda, meeting next Monday, is almost unanimously in favor of naming Bishop Farley for archbishop.

Park Reserved for Male Drunks.

"An old women's revival meeting" is one of the functions of Madison Square park that the police are determined to do away with. Six white-haired elderly women, with convivial countenances, were brought before the magistrate in Jefferson Market police court this morning charged with attending the "meeting" last night. The policeman said that it has become the custom of a number of women to get together on the park benches and in the intervals of drinking whisky from a flask to discussing every topic that comes into their minds, from trimming hats to the anthracite strike. There has been a crusade against "loungers" in this park of late, and the "revival meeting" was gathered in as part of the regular course. Madison Square park is one of the most beautiful breathing spots in New York. It was here that Citizen George Francis Train used to spend many hours every day before he moved down to the Mills house.

From Tenderloin to Market.

Jefferson Market police court is a sort of clearing house for the Tenderloin. It is in a red brick building of gothic design and imposing dimensions at the intersection of Eighth street and Sixth avenue, and can hardly fail to attract the attention of passengers on the Sixth avenue "L." It is here that the prisoners from the Tenderloin police station, in West Thirtieth street, are brought before the magistrate, and pretty much all the wrongdoers of the electric light district find their way to "the market" when they have contrived to fall into the hands of the police. If a visitor desires to see police court trials in their most characteristic aspect, Jefferson Market court is the place to which he should go.

Tomatoes as Gory Weapons.

Over on the East Side they sometimes get even with the haughty policeman on the beat. O'Brien is the name of an officer who appeared in court this morning with his blue uniform badly stained and his brass buttons much tarnished. It was a simple tale he had to tell. He had arrested a peddler named Kramer for selling tomatoes after he had been ordered to move on, and Kramer's friends came to his rescue with a shower of tomatoes. It cost Kramer a $5 fine, but he paid it with such cheerfulness that no doubt he felt his fun with the officer was worth the money.

Pittsburgher Makes Call.

Orlin M. Sanford, the well-known Pittsburgh insurance manager, was a caller at The Gazette News Bureau last evening. Mr. Sanford is here on business and pleasure combined. New York is a particularly busy as well as pleasant place just now, what with the approach of fall and its business, politics, the races, etc.

Is Not Mad, But Soon Will Be.

So much light was thrown on the doings in the pavilion for the insane in Bellevue hospital in the last municipal administration that it is generally believed conditions have improved there. The case of Col. Albert H. Rogers, formerly deputy commissioner of street cleaning, has revived interest in the hospital. Col. Rogers is confined in the pavilion and wants to get out. He asserts that he is not insane, and says that confinement in the pavilion is horrible. Yesterday he intimated that the attendants treated him badly, but today he said that the attaches had been good to him. Whatever may be the outcome of this case, the feeling is strong that it is good to discuss the insane pavilion now and then, considering what serious charges were made against some of the nurses there a year or so ago.

Complimentary to the Bundles.

"He was going up Broadway with a bundle under each arm," remarked one Broadwayite to another, this afternoon, speaking of a common acquaintance. "What was in the bundles—new clothes?" asked the other. The look of disgust on the countenance of the first speaker cracked the tan on his face as he sneered: "What's the matter with you? Don't you know that a 'bundle' is a girl, and that when I say he had a bundle under each arm, I mean that he was escorting two young women? Smoke up." The rebuked one looked ashamed—as well he might, for it is indicative of the "rube" not to be familiar with the latest vagary of elegant Broadway slang.

Pittsburgher's Drama a Success.

Among the theatrical openings of last night was that of the Metropolis theater, uptown, where a new melodrama by a Pittsburgher, entitled "The Price of Honor," was successfully produced. The author is James K. Garey of the South Side. The piece is one of the old-fashioned dramas, in which there is a wronged woman in black alpaca and a child who is wept over by the mother and cursed by the villain alternately. Mr. Garey has written a strong play, even if some of the characters are familiar, and the construction leaves nothing to be desired. It abounds in heart thrills, and the interest of the audience is maintained at concert pitch from the very beginning. The play is well staged, and evidently it is a solid hit. Mr. Garey has another success this season, in the shape of the drama called "A Kentucky Feud," which he wrote in conjunction with W. T. Keogh, manager of the New Star theater of this city.

Excitement for the Commuter.

Hackensack, N. J., which is one of the many hall bedrooms of New York city, will not get a municipal building for at least a year. The special election held to vote on the question of bonding the town in the sum of $32,000 resulted in a defeat of that question by 91 votes. In all 1,055 votes were cast. When 200 commuters, who returned late from New York, endeavored to vote after 7 o'clock they were refused, and for a moment a riot seemed imminent. The result was a victory for the "uptowners," who defeated the project because the commission purposed buying the former bank building, which is downtown.

Four Hundred Badly Scattered.

New York is deserted by society this week. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt's elaborate vaudeville "at home" last night at Newport, the tennis finals tomorrow, the closing of the Saratoga season, and preparations for the horse shows which are to be held in so many places this year, are a few of the attractions that are scattering the four hundred.

THE QUESTION OF THE TRUSTS.

The significance of President Roosevelt's outspoken views on trusts is his evident conviction that the subject presents a momentous problem to statesmanship for solution and a vital issue with which the Republican party must deal if it is to command the support of the people and continue in power.—New York Herald.

The trust question is by no means an easy one, and is not to be approached in the spirit of demagogism. It cannot be solved by railing accusations against the trust magnates, but must be considered with the wisdom of statesmanship. It is in this spirit that the president discusses it, and his speech deserves the thoughtful study of the American people.—Chicago Tribune.

What President Roosevelt says is as far removed from the anti-trust rant of the Bryanites as truth is from error. There is no taint of the demagogue in it from beginning to end.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

There is one idea of fundamental importance in President Roosevelt's Providence speech, as soundly conceived and maturely considered as it is beautifully expressed. We quote this sentiment of the chief magistrate's in order that it may be studied, admired and remembered for all future time by all concerned:

"The mechanism of modern business is as delicate and complicated as it is vast, and nothing would be more productive of evil to all of us, and especially to those least well off in this world's goods, than ignorant meddling with this mechanism. * * * Distrust the man who offers you a patent cure-all for the evils of the body politic, just as you would distrust him who tries to sell you a medicine to cure all the diseases of your corporal bodies."—New York Sun.

There was never a time when the prosperity of the common people was so great as it is now. The financiers and administrators who have made such fortunes as were never seen before have rarely accomplished this at the expense of the rest of the community; if they had not made their fortunes no one else would have been a dollar richer; thousands would not have been nearly so well off. But envy prompts the demand that the men of genius and daring should not be permitted to reap the full results of their talents. There is a profound truth in the statement of the president in regard to the evils that have thus far resulted from combinations of capital that "probably the most serious harm resulting to us, the people of moderate means, is when we harm ourselves by letting the dark and evil vices of envy and hatred toward our fellows eat into our natures." Envy will never secure a better distribution of wealth.—Journal of Commerce.

President Roosevelt's speech at Providence on Saturday was a forcible restatement of the sound economic and political doctrine that all that the citizen can reasonably expect from his government is the opportunity for the free play of his individual initiative, enterprise and energy; or, as the president expressively puts it, "the opportunity to prosper." Government must protect this field of opportunity by wise laws and by the fearless execution of those laws. Many persons seem to think that it is the business of the government not only to protect them in their persons, their property and their liberty of action, but to furnish them with a living. President Roosevelt dispels this illusion by the terse statement that when the conditions have been created by the wise legislation which makes prosperity possible, then "each individual man must achieve it for himself by his own thrift, intelligence, energy, industry and resolute purpose."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

ISLE OF MAN ONCE SMALL KINGDOM

Now to Be Governed by Husband of the Eccentric Lady Raglan.

By the MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

Lord and Lady Raglan are not rich and have been, therefore, glad to exchange the somewhat expensive office of undersecretary of state for war, which entailed residence in London, for the governorship of the Isle of Man, which carries with it an official residence, a salary of about $10,000 a year, sundry allowances and very few expenses. The Isle of Man, famous for the production of men's hats and of Hall Caine, is, as everyone knows, situated in the Irish sea, about equi-distant from England, Scotland and Ireland, and for three centuries in times gone by was subject to Norwegian rule. Then it passed to the crown of Scotland, was seized by King Henry IV. of England, and was bestowed by him upon the Stanley family. For the following three centuries the sovereignty of the island belonged to the earls of Derby, who consequently included among their titles that of king of the Isle of Man. On the death of the tenth earl in 1736 without male issue, the earldom of Derby went to his next male heir, a cousin, but the sovereignty of the Isle of Man went to his heir general, the then duke of Atholl, from whose only child, a daughter, the English crown purchased it in 1765 for $400,000. Since then it has been administered by a governor and independent legislature consisting of two branches, the council and the house of keys. Lord Henniker was the last governor and Lord Raglan now steps into his shoes.

Odd Lady, Peculiar People.

The people on the Isle of Man are rather a strange lot, and it remains to be seen how they will relish the idea of Lady Raglan immediately after her husband receiving the appointment as their governor, posing in her coronation robes at a charity bazaar in Kent, three pence being charged for the privilege of gazing on her, precisely as if she had been the Circassian beauty, the fat lady, the human skeleton or the India rubber man at some county fair.

But Lady Raglan has always been extremely odd, and when a few years ago an unscrupulous London dentist attempted to overcharge her for a set of false teeth, she preferred to go to law about the matter and to submit to no end of publicity in connection with the affair, rather than allow herself to be imposed upon.

Lord Raglan is in the very prime of life, considerably over six feet in height, broad in proportion, and while in the Guards—for he is an old soldier—used to be known by the nickname of "Old Honesty." He belongs to the Somerset family, of which the duke of Beaufort is the chief, and is the grandson of that Lord Raglan, who was the commander-in-chief of the British army during the Crimean war.

Raglan castle does not belong to him. In fact I believe it has now passed out of the possession of the Somerset family altogether, and his country seat is a place in Wales, known as Cefutilia, which was presented to his grandfather by public subscription in return for his military services.

Origion of Statthlolder.

The old grand duke of Luxemburg has turned over the reins of government to his only son, whom he has appointed statthlolder of the grand duchy in his place. This title is essentially one of the house of Nassau-Orange, of which the grand duke of Luxemburg represents the junior branch. It was first borne by Prince William of Orange, after he had brought the insurrection of the Netherlands against Spain to a successful conclusion, and won for them freedom from Spanish tyranny. The provinces which had thus won their independence formed themselves into a species of republic with the prince of Orange as it head, with this title of "statthlolder."

When Prince William was murdered his eldest son, Maurice, was elected by the states general, that is to say by the national diet of the Netherlands, as "statthlolder" in his stead. In course of time the dignity was made hereditary in the Orange-Nassau family, and was combined with the title of "general admiral of the Union," the union consisting of the seven separate states of the Netherlands, and it remained as such until the seizure of Holland by France at the close of the eighteenth century.

After the overthrow of Napoleon in 1815, however, the house of Orange-Nassau was restored to power in the Netherlands, the hereditary dignity of statthlolder being transformed into the hereditary dignity of king.

Title Served for Son.

From that time forth the title of statthlolder has been allowed to lapse by the house of Orange-Nassau, and it is now revived after a lapse of nearly ninety years by the octogenarian grand duke of Luxenburg in favor of his only son. There is no other royal house in the old world that either uses at present or has employed in the past this title of statthlolder, which may be translated as "holder of the state."

True, Prince Herman of Hohenlohe, the head of the princely house of that name, and the governor-general of Alsace-Lorraine, is sometimes described as the statthlolder of these two provinces, or of the Reichsland. But this is not his official title, nor is it correct.

Strictly speaking he is styled the "lieutenant of the emperor" in Alsace-Lorraine. These two provinces wrested from the French in the war of 1870, belong, not to Prussia, but to the entire confederation of sovereign states, known as the German Empire, and of which the rulers of Prussia are the hereditary presidents, with the title of German emperor."

It is as president of the Confederation that Emperor William is entrusted with the administration of these two provinces for the benefit of the Confederation, and in its name, and Prince Hohenlohe is deputed to act as his delegate and lieutenant.

"Your trouble probably arose from some forgotten contusion, whereby an irritation was caused which communicated itself to the——"

"Oh, cut all that out!" interrupted the other impatiently.

"But I was going to explain," said the surgeon, "what caused the cancerous growth——"

PERSONALS.

Lieut. Conrad of the Eighteenth infantry, the sole survivor of the three second lieutenants who went to the Philippines with Capt. Thomas Griffin, commandant at the local United States army recruiting station, yesterday stopped off here to visit Capt. Griffith at the recruiting station in Smithfield street. Lieut. Conrad will remain in Pittsburgh for a few days, being on leave of absence while on his way to the General Staff college at Fort Lebanon.

Al J. DeRoy of the firm of Joseph DeRoy & Sons, who has been in Europe for several months, returned to Pittsburgh yesterday. "Of course," he said, "there are many sights of interest to be seen in all parts of Europe, but America is the only country on the globe."

Alderman Samuel Abernathey and wife and Constable George H. English and wife, all of Allegheny, returned yesterday from a two weeks' visit to Atlantic City.

Traveling in a Lehigh Valley private car, a party of officials of that road reached Pittsburgh yesterday. The members of the party are General Superintendent Rollin H. Wilbur, New York; Superintendent of Motive Power H. D. Taylor and Assistant Superintendent of Motive Power John Bought of South Bethlehem; Superintendent George H. Harleman, of the Lehigh and New Jersey division, and Electrical Engineer John H. Klink. The party spent the night at the Schenley. Today they will inspect the Westinghouse airbrake and electric plants, leaving then for Altoona. At Altoona the shops of the Pennsylvania and at Reading those of the Reading system will be inspected. Yesterday the party went over the great Collingwood shops of the Lake Shore, near Cleveland. "It is just a trip for the purpose of keeping in touch with new ideas in our line," said Mr. Taylor, last evening. We make such a trip every few months."

Attorney S. W. Childs and G. G. Garrit, of the National Tube Company, left last evening, on the Pennsylvania limited, for Arizona. They will spend a month hunting in the Jackson's Hole country, and went loaded for big game.

"This is my first trip to Pittsburgh, and I am carrying away two very distinct impressions of the city from a railroad point of view," said Charles E. Smith, traveling freight agent of the Mobile & Ohio railroad at St. Louis, who was at the Union station last evening, leaving town after spending two days here on business. "One impression is the immensity of the freight business; Pittsburgh computes in trains where other towns use cars. The other impression relates to the democratic manners of Pittsburgh business men. There is a way of direct business about them that is as unusual as it is pleasing, and in a business way, satisfactory. There is no foolishness about them. If they are not engaged they will see you and give the time the subject is worth."

Mrs. D. W. Harris of Henry street, her son, D. Stanley Harris, and granddaughter, Bessie Greatrake, left last night on the Duquesne limited for New York, whence they sail today on the Oceanic for a two months' tour of Europe. They will visit several cities in Ireland and relatives at Brighton, Wales, going later to France and Germany for a month.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Funeral of Arthur Chislett.

Funeral services will be held over the remains of Arthur Chislett this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in St. John's Protestant Episcopal church, Butler and Main streets. Mr. Chislett, who was 58 years old, and had lived in Lawrenceville all his life, died at his home, No. 160 Forty-fourth street, on Sunday. He was a son of John Chislett, the first superintendent of the Allegheny cemetery. He was a frequent visitor at the old Schenley mansion in Stanton avenue. For the past 20 years Mr. Chislett had been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. He was a member of Milnor lodge No. 287, F. and A. M. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Edward C. Berger.

John L. McDowell.

Mr. McDowell was born in Pittsburgh in 1844, and had lived in Allegheny county all his life. At the outbreak of the civil war he enlisted in the Pennsylvania volunteers and took part in 12 battles. At Antietum he received a permanent injury. For the past few years he had served as a steward on local towboats. He was a member of the Union Veteran Legion and of Col. John D. The marvels promised for liquid air have for the most part not materialized. However, if all summers are to be as mild as the present one, condensed cold will not be needed.

BUILDING IN M'KEESPORT

Allegheny Residence Changes Hands. Two More Houses to Be Erected in Bellevue—Many Sales of Medium Priced Properties.

The Colonial Trust Company and the City Trust Company have sold to William V. Caliery four pieces of property located in Pittsburgh and Allegheny for $175,000. The largest and most important of the properties transferred was the old City Savings bank building, standing on a lot measuring 22x60 feet at the southeast corner of Smithfield street and Sixth avenue, in the Third ward. The second conveyance was an improved lot in the rear of the bank building and immediately adjoining, size 20x60 feet, frontage being in Sixth avenue. Third, a plot of ground in the Tenth ward, Allegheny, fronting 140 feet in Irwin avenue by a depth of 250 feet. Fourth, a brick dwelling, lot 20x199 feet, on the east side of Monterey street, near Jackson street, Second ward, Allegheny.

An exchange deal has just been concluded by which the E. F. Shields residence, lot 190x300 feet, in Emsworth avenue, Emsworth, near the railroad station, valued at $35,000, has been traded for two of the George B. Shickler apartment houses in Mathilda street, Twentieth ward, Pittsburgh, valued at $65,000, the difference being paid in cash. The apartment houses stand on lots measuring 50x110 feet and contain six apartments of six rooms in each house. They were owned by the Warren estate.

Improvements in McKeesport.

E. J. Bechdel and Harry Myers have sold for the Empire Land & Improvement Company two lots in the Sill View Park plan, McKeesport, fronting 25 feet by a depth of 125 feet each in Walnut street, for $1,700, and a lot in the same plan 25x100 feet at the corner of Hamilton and Florence avenues for $350. They were sold to a builder, who will immediately improve those in Walnut street with business houses costing about $5,000 each, and the other with a dwelling to cost about $4,000. The same agents sold in the same plan a lot 25x110 feet at the corner of Forbes and Euclid avenues for $425 to Gustave Kline, and to George Walch a lot 25x125 feet in Lexington avenue, at the corner of Hamilton, running back to Monroe avenue, for $550. These lots will be improved with dwellings. Contracts have been let for the grading of all the streets in the Sill View Park plan and the laying of sidewalks in all the streets, these improvements to cost about $6,000.

W. L. Scott & Co. have sold for Sarah E. Emery to David Blair a brick house of 10 rooms, lot 20x100 feet, No. 47 Hemlock street, Third ward, Allegheny, for $7,500.

Gault & Giffen have sold for J. B. McCready to C. M. Gault two lots measuring 88x150 feet in the north side of Forest avenue, near Thomas avenue, Bellevue, for $2,200. The purchaser will build two dwellings on the lots at a cost of about $3,000 each.

Eleventh Ward Sale.

Barr Bros. & Co. sold through I. Saachs & Co. for W. H. Campbell to Rebecca Wisotsky the property, No. 134 Erin street, consisting of lot, 20x115 feet, through to Trent street, and improved with a two-story brick dwelling. Consideration, $5,100. The property is in the Eleventh ward.

E. T. Schaffner's real estate agency sold for August J. Noll to John Howard Crawford a six-room frame house, lot 25x102.5 feet, in Michigan street, Thirty-eighth ward, for $2,250.

Lots Nos. 119 and 126, also lots Nos. 137 and 138, in the Bandi Farm plan, Knoxville, have been sold to Frank Byron for $1,550 on easy payments.

The opening sale of lots in the Homestead Park Land Company's plan, Homestead, will occur Friday and Saturday of this week, at which time free transportation will be furnished to all who desire to attend the sale. The plan lies south and less than one mile distant from Homestead, and is in the center of a most desirable residence section. Lots range in price from $200 to $550.

Capt. J. A. Brown, superintendent of the bureau of building inspection, declares there is too much underestimating of cost by persons erecting new buildings, which results in a loss to the city in the matter of taxes. Another reason he assigns as a probable cause for the underestimation is that builders induce owners to make improvements by representing to them that the expense will be less than it subsequently proves to be.

Society.

A SERIOUS problem is confronting the board of managers of the Ladies of the G. A. R. Home at Hawkins station. It is the already cramped accommodations for the inmates. The home was finished only two years ago, after the destruction of the old home by fire. No definite plans have yet been made for relieving the crowded condition, but the matter will be discussed at a meeting of the board of directors shortly.

There are now 47 women in the home, the widows and orphans of soldiers of the G. A. R. A number of applications have been received from others, eight of whom must be provided for in some way. When the new building was erected it was the intention that each inmate should have a room entirely to herself, but already it has become necessary to place two in a room.

The anniversary lawn fete will occur on Thursday, September 4, and several large and handsome donations will be in place at that time. Several prominent men have provided carpet for all the halls and stairways at a cost of more than $400. The donors intend to withhold their names until the anniversary date, September 4, when the carpet will be laid.

Another handsome gift is the equipment of the hospital or infirmary at a cost of several hundred dollars. The room is large and sunny and is now provided with four beds and pretty willow tables. The gift also includes a complete supply of linen, cabinets, full medical outfit and all the other necessities of a well equipped private hospital ward.

The lawn fete will be held both afternoon and evening. The entire house will be open to visitors and the hospital will be ready for inspection. Both dinner and supper will be served.

Another Euchre at Kennywood.

So successful was the euchre and dance given by the Wimodausis club at Kennywood park in July, that another has been decided on and will be held at the same place on Wednesday, September 17. It will continue afternoon and evening. Between $400 and $500 was cleared from the July affair. These entertainments are planned to raise money for the building fund which the Wimodausis club is starting for the purchase or erection of a clubhouse for women in Pittsburgh.

Some weeks ago the Wimodausis club secured a charter so that it could build a clubhouse not only for itself, but for all other women's clubs which desire to make it their headquarters. If a building in a central location and large enough for the purpose can be purchased, it will be altered to meet the demands of the Wimodausis club which includes in its new club house scheme a kitchen, cafe, assembly rooms, library and committee rooms.

Baldwin—Patterson.

Miss Anna Rea Baldwin and C. C. Patterson of West Brownsville, Pa., were married at the Presbyterian manse, Brownsville, on Thursday, August 14. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple started for an extended trip to the lakes. They will visit at Franklin, Pa., and Newport, O., before returning home.

Lot Drawing at a Lawn Fete.

There is much excitement in Sheraden over a lot drawing that is to take place at the lawn fete on Thursday afternoon and evening, at Kenwood lawn, East End, for the benefit of the Church of the Holy Innocents, the Rev. Father O'Shea, rector. Some one holding the lucky number will get a valuable building lot, No. 468, in Sherman avenue, Sheraden Terrace, for $1. Last year J. W. Cleavinger won lot No. 153 in Zephyr avenue, and refused $1,000 for his good luck. This year John Murphy will be present and sign the deed and deliver it to the lucky one, Mr. Murphy having donated each lot for the church benefit. There will be all kinds of amusement and an excellent opportunity for the city people to meet their Sheraden friends. Arrangements have been made for street cars to run through from Kenwood lawn to Sheraden.

Meyers—Murphy.

Miss Milly Meyers and Joseph Murphy were married on Tuesday evening in St. Stephen's Roman Catholic church, Second avenue and Elizabeth street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father D. J. Devlin.

Tennis Tournament Closed.

The finals in the Coraopolis Tennis club tournament were held Monday evening between Dr. Edward Ilan and Robert Watson. Watson was victorious, the result being 6-1, 6-0.

SOCIAL NOTES.

The Washington Infantry enjoyed an excursion last evening up the Monongahela river.

Mrs. A. M. Taylor of Los Angeles, Cal., has been visiting her sister, Charles F. Sherriff of Church avenue, Allegheny, since the middle of July.

At Kennywood park last evening the Qui Vive club of Wilkinsburg gave a dance, one of a series of summer dances this season in the dancing pavilion.

The twelfth annual picnic of the Smithfield Concordia of the First German Evangelical Protestant church, was held yesterday at Olympia park near McKeesport.

The friends of David M. Linton and Miss Anna M. Brown were surprised at the announcement of their marriage which took place May 30. Mr. and Mrs. Linton are making their home at present with Mr. Linton's people at No. 7207 Race street, Pittsburgh, but will go to housekeeping soon.

PHILLIPS CAN'T COME.

Declines the Invitation to Speak Here on Labor Day.

Secretary John Fernau of the general committee of the Labor Day demonstration was advised yesterday by Thomas W. Phillips of New Castle, ex-congressman and father of the industrial commission, that it is impossible to accept the invitation to deliver an address at the celebration.

Custom Tailors' union No. 131 yesterday reported to the Labor Day officials that an enthusiastic meeting, which the organization held the night before at No. 406 Sixth avenue, indicated that the organization would turn out nearly 400 marchers for the Labor Day parade.

COST STATE $500,000.

Twenty-One New Bridges Must Be Built Under Focht Act—Destroyed by Flood.

HARRISBURG, PA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Twenty-one bridges, at a cost of from $5,000 to $115,000 each, are about to be built by the state to replace bridges in various parts of Pennsylvania destroyed by the freshets of last spring. The plans and specifications have been prepared by six engineers appointed by the board of public buildings and grounds and will be considered at a special meeting of that body tomorrow.

The largest of them will be built across the Susquehanna river at Tunkhannock at an estimated cost of $115,000. All will be built under the Focht act of 1895, which provides that where a bridge is destroyed it shall be rebuilt at the expense of the state and not by the county.

The total cost of the bridges is estimated at $500,000 and the damage has become so great that the board may find it necessary to oppose the application where the bridges do not cross navigable streams. The bridges to be erected will be located in Bradford, Sullivan, Lycoming and other counties along the Susquehanna and its tributaries.

EVERY CHILD BORN INTO THE WORLD with an inherited tendency to distressing, disfiguring humours of the skin, scalp, and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz., THE CUTICURA TREATMENT.

Warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, gentle anointings with CUTICURA OINTMENT, to instantly allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, are all that can be desired for the alleviation of the suffering of skin-tortured infants and children and the comfort of worn-out, worried mothers. A single set is often sufficient to cure when the best physicians fail.

This new industrial city has water, gas, three miles of paved streets, with others under way; a brick school house, which is a credit to any town; a new $50,000 school house under contract which will be the finest in the Monongahela Valley; three brick hotels, which cost over $100,000, two of which are the best within seventy-five miles of Pittsburgh.

The first National Bank has a fine building, and the Bank of Donora is nearing completion.

The Railroad Company will complete a good passenger and freight depot, having acquired 700 feet of ground at Eighth street for these improvements.

Donora will have other new factories, and is only started.

The Union Steel Company have the largest and best equipped Rod, Wire and Nail Mill in the country, but this represents only a department of this company.

Under construction at present are two blast furnaces, twelve open-hearth furnaces, blooming and billet mills, each of which are being made as complete as the best engineers of the country can make them, without reference to expense.

Other finishing mills will follow.

The above work has been planned and arranged for duplicating blast furnaces and open hearth plant.

This manufacturing site is above high water, consisting of 200 acres and fronting 3½ miles on the Monongahela River.

Streets in the new addition are being paved and sewered by Erbeck Bros., Homestead, Pa.

We have a good town, but it must continue to grow quickly, so the Union Steel Company can operate and proceed with the construction of its other plants.

With this end in view, prices are being made so attractive that careful investors will buy and improve the property. The immediate development of Donora is so important that prices are made for accomplishing this purpose, and lots will range from $100.00 up.

Terms 10% cash, 15% in 30 days and balance in semi-annual payments, with interest at 6%. Cash discount of 3% on deferred payments.

Look Donora over and see if it is not a good place to build and invest.

This is our last Addition and comprises the remainder of our town site.

Spurred on by one of the most generous offers ever made to a baseball team, the champion Pirates went at Al Buckenberger's Boston aggregation yesterday afternoon and almost wiped it off the face of the earth. The home team took both games, much to the delight of 4,620 spectators, the first by a score of 8 to 1 and the second by a score of 3 to 0.

The offer which put the champions on their mettle was made just before the start of yesterday's game by Senator Thomas F. Grady of New York, known as "The Irish Orator," and a 33d degree baseball rooter, who knows the game from start to finish. Senator Grady used to be the friend and admirer of the Giants in the old days, but now he has transferred his affections partly because of the great work displayed by the champions and partly because of a strong friendship for Barney Dreyfuss, the team's owner, who Senator Grady says is the squarest and gamest man in baseballdom.

Senator Grady's Generous Offer.

Senator Grady was present at this time because he was called to deliver the opening address at the Irish Fair, and that is a treat he would travel thousands of miles to enjoy. He called on President Dreyfuss in the club office and in the presence of the club owner, made these offers, all of which are to be paid in gold and which aggregate $1,000:

$250 to the captain of the team winning the pennant.

$100 to the player on championship team making the most sacrifice hits.

$200 to the players making the most timely hits, to be decided by Manager Clarke.

$100 to the pitcher with the best pitching average at the close of the season.

$100 to the player that leads the champion team in batting.

$125 to the best infielder on the team, to be decided by Manager Clarke.

$125 to the best outfielder in the National league, to be decided by Manager Clarke, who is excluded from the list.

The result of these offers was two of the fastest baseball exhibitions of the season.

The first game was pitched by Happy Jack Chesbro. The lad from down east was in his best form. The visitors were lucky to save themselves a shut-out, getting their single tally of the afternoon on a slight wobble of Tommy Leach, who beat down a base hit but was in such a position that he could not make a clean throw to second to head off Lush, who later got home with the lonely tally on Dexter's hit to right.

Pittinger was Buckenberger's first pitching proposition and Boston was counting on a victory, as the ex-Greensburger has always been a thorn in the champions' side. It was different though yesterday, and when Clarke's men got through with Mr. Pittinger he was bellowing like a wild bull, so great was his rage. The champions started in on him in the third inning, when a base on balls to Beaumont, singles by Wagner and Ritchey and a timely two-bagger by Crolius netted three runs. Then, to make good, they tore off five more in the seventh on two bases on balls, four singles and a two-bagger.

Dohney Won His Own Game.

Eddie Doheny was the boy who turned the trick in the second game, and not only did he shut out the visitors with two little singles, and one of them a scratch at that, but he won his own game with a home run in the seventh inning, sending Crolius, who was running for Zimmer, in ahead of him. Eddie rapped the ball squarely and sent it whizzing down through left field to the bleachers. It was a smashing hit and almost sent the spectators wild with delight. Not one of the visitors got past second base in this game, and there never was a moment when Doheny was not the master of the batters.

Willis also pitched a pretty game for Boston, but the local twirler had him beaten. The Pirates' first run was scored by Manager Clarke in the third inning, when he led off with a pretty three-base hit to left and scored on Beaumont's fly out. Both games were interesting all the way and were filled with fast and pretty fielding, the only thing to mar them being the very poor work of Umpire Irwin. The scores:

NOTES OF THE GAMES.

Pitcher Pittinger made an awful show of temper when the Pirates got after his curves in the eighth inning.

Eddie Doheny's pitching in the second game was by far his best performance of the season. His curves seemed to break better than in any previous game, and the Boston batters were helpless before him. His clever pitching was warmly applauded.

That Greminger fellow was doing a bit of sensational playing himself yesterday afternoon, and some of his stops and throws were beauties. The big fellow had a very busy afternoon of it at third base, and he did not allow anything to get away from him.

If Charley Dexter would cut out a few of his grandstand frills and try to cover a little more ground he would be a more valuable player for his team. Dexter is a fine all-round ball player, but he can't resist the temptation to throw in a few extra stunts for the benefit of the spectators.

That offer of Senator Grady of $1,000 in gold will cause a lot of hustling on the part of the Pirates, and it will likewise cause a lot of trouble for Manager Clarke, whose duty it will be to decide on the players entitled to the amounts offered. However, Manager Fred has had experience enough to fit him for the task.

Secretary Pulliam, who started out Monday on a hunt for a catcher, wired President Dreyfuss yesterday that he has signed Catcher Phelps of the Rochester league club, and the new player will report to the Pirates in Brooklyn next Monday. The new man is a big fellow, weighing nearly 200 pounds, and is said to be a great hitter.

The band concert at Exposition theater was over at the park and pleased the spectators with selections before and during the game. When the Pirates' first run was scored in the third inning of the first game the band struck up "Hot Time in the Old Town," and the spectators joined in the chorus and cheered for Beaumont, who brought the tally home.

Fred Crolius has batted and played himself into the favor of the fans, and he is applauded every time he appears at bat. His two-bagger in the third inning of the first game which brought two runs across the plate drew forth a great volley of cheers, and Fred had to doff his cap at least half a dozen times. He has a good eye and stings the ball every times he goes to bat.

Fred Tenney, the clever first baseman of the Boston team, seems to have a total disregard for his appearance on the ball field, and wears his baseball rig like a football player. This gave the crowd a chance to go after him, and he was furnished all kinds of advice in relation to a hair cut. Tenney paid no attention to these compliments, but went ahead playing first base as only he can play it.

The exhibition of umpiring put up by Arthur Irwin yesterday was bad, but one good thing about it was that both sides suffered. His decision on Lush's drive in the seventh inning of the first game was very bad. The ball was foul by a full yard, yet it was called fair and Wagner was called safe in the eighth inning of the second game when he was out by a step. Irwin's decision on balls and strikes also were very bad.

Claude Ritchey, who has been out of the game for some days nursing an injured leg, was back at his old position yesterday and celebrated his return by lining out three nice singles in the first game, thus getting a batting average of 1000, as he was sent to bat on balls on his fourth turn up. Little Al Bright also had a busy day of it out at second base, and as usual, he went through without a slip-up of any kind.

Pitcher Malarkey of the Boston team, who has not yet recovered from the ravages of typhoid fever, was out on the coaching lines and became a mark for the kidders in the grand stand. Malarkey wore a maroon sweater, and one of the spectators yelled out: "Say, Malarkey, you look like a bottle of catsup." The remark drew a laugh from the good-natured pitcher, and later, when he was called on to take Demont's place, the crowd gave him a cheer.

The sensational play of the afternoon was made by Honus Wagner in the fourth inning of the first game. There were Boston runners on third and second with two out when Dexter, who was at bat, sent up one of those frightening Texas leaguers just too far in for the right fielder and apparently too far out for the infielders. Honus dug his toes into the dirt and darted down into right. He overtook the flying sphere, then leaped into the air and pulled it down. How that crowd did cheer!

CINCINNATI, Aug. 26.—The New York team had a rather easy time shutting Cincinnati out today. The game was not at all interesting for the reason that New York took the lead at the start and held it through the entire game. The locals could not solve Mathewson's delivery. Attendance, 2,000. Score:

RATHER WIN THAN BE PRESIDENT

THAT'S WHAT YOUNG CORBETT SAYS ABOUT COMING FIGHT.

Whipped McGovern on the Square Before and Is Anxious to Do It Again. Laughs at Reports of Fake—Terry at Training Quarters.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 26.—"I would rather defeat McGovern than be president of the United States," said Young Corbett today.

"The public has given me little credit for defeating McGovern. The quick termination of the battle and the general impression that McGovern was in poor form when he fought me, made the victory seem to many a fluke. The fact is, I outfought and beat him at his own game. He has nothing on me, and I will beat him as easily as I did before."

In regard to the "fake" stories sent out from Boston and New York, Corbett said: "If I was going to lay down, do you think 'Honest John Kelley,' Eddie Burke, the Considine brothers and others would back me in the coming fight? Not much. These men will not bet a $10 note, but thousands."

This was when Corbett made the remark that he would rather beat McGovern than be president of the United States.

"The cry of 'fake' is getting to be a common thing now-a-days," continued Corbett, "but I will have no fake in mine."

For the present, Corbett will do his gymnasium work in the bowling pavilion. The rest of the week will be devoted to out-door exercise. Commencing next Monday Corbett will do in-door work, consisting of 10 or 12 rounds of boxing, punching the bag for half an hour, skipping the rope, dumbbell exercise and wrestling.

Young Corbett has split his right hand in catching a hard-thrown ball, but the wound is expected to heal by the end of the week. He did a 10-minute run today, which practically covered his training.

Jealousy between Trainers George Newhouse of Chicago and Harry Tuthill of New York resulted in an open breach at Camp Corbett, on Price hill today, and ended in Newhouse severing his connection with the camp. Newhouse says he was badly treated, but attached no blame to Young Corbett.

Terry McGovern, accompanied by his brother, Hughey, Trainer Charles Mayhood, Ed Cain and Joe Humphries, arrived in Cincinnati this afternoon. Pat Amman, an ex-pugilist; Frank Newhouse of Denver, Joe Dacey, Mark English and Jerry Hanrahan awaited the arrival of Terry and his men.

"I didn't intend doing any training for 10 days yet," said Terry, as he climbed into an awaiting vehicle, which conveyed him to the training quarters at the Norwood inn. "How many rounds will I finish Corbett in?" he repeated. "Well, that's a difficult question, but I'm in the best of health, and if I don't whip him there will be no excuses."

GEERS DROVE DIRECT HAL TO GREAT VICT

PORTS WATCHED FOR IMMIGRANTS GOING TO MINES

Four Men En Route to Anthracite Field Stopped to Baltimore.

WERE ADVISED TO COME

Pittsburgher Seeks Position as Inspector on Canadian or Mexican Frontier—Prof. Jenks Reports on Chinese Labor in Philippines.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
602 Fifteenth St., N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26.

Dr. B. B. Marheinecke, who gives his address as 706 Bijou building, Pittsburgh, has applied to Commissioner General Sargent of the immigration service for appointment as an immigrant inspector, either on the Canadian or Texas borders. Dr. Marheinecke is believed to have been recently a resident of Illinois, as he has filed a strong letter of indorsement from Senator Cullom. He promises to file local indorsements later.

Commissioner General Sargent is having all the ports carefully watched for immigrants who may be coming over to take the places of the striking coal miners. About a month ago he was advised that a number of immigrants had sailed for Baltimore, but their ultimate destination was the anthracite coal fields. The immigration officers at Baltimore were promptly advised, and as a result they caught two Germans and two Austrians, who admitted their destination was Hazelton, Pa., that they expected to get work in the coal mines and further that they had been advised to come. Sargent today ordered that they be deported.

In discussing the matter today Commissioner General Sargent said that the laws would be strictly enforced and every immigrant not eligible for entrance would be at once sent back, and especial vigilance would be used to prevent the importation of contract laborers.

Commissioner General Sargent and others concerned in the subject of Chinese immigration are greatly interested in the recommendations of Prof. J. W. Jenks, who has made a study of colonial conditions the world over for the war department. In his forthcoming report he will advise, it is understood, that the laws be so changed as to give the Philippines commission discretion over the admission of Chinese to the archipelago.

Prof. Jenks is very distrustful of American enterprise in the Philippines unless there can be a better labor supply than now. Treasury officials, however, point out in support of the present system that the natives of the archipelago should be given a chance to demonstrate their efficiency before any change is made.

B. B. Marheinecke is president of the Hercules Drug Company, with offices in the Bijou building in Penn avenue. His residence is in Hazelwood.

Rawthornes' claim for the championship of the Printers' Baseball league is disputed by the Pittsburgh Newspaper Union. The P. N. U. won the first game by a score of 20 to 2 and the Rawthornes won the second by a score of 11 to 10. The P. N. U. would like to meet them Saturday, August 30, at the Exposition park grounds and give them a shut-out. If the Rawthornes are game they can have another crack at them for $50 a side, which, if they win, will entitle them to the pennant. G. Soffel, manager.

RENNERDALE LAND SALE.

The high class residence suburb. As beautiful and convenient as Sewickley, for about one-tenth the price. Great, large lots, 60 to 75 feet front, by 168 to 190 feet deep, will be sold at this sale from $200 to $800 each, only 5 per cent down and 2 per cent per month, with no interest or taxes until 1904.

Rennerdale is situate on main line of Panhandle R. R., 11½ miles from the Union Depot. It is a strictly high class residence suburb, which can be reached in 20 minutes from the Union Depot, Fourth ave. and Birmingham stations, and when the four track system now in course of construction is completed the run can be made in half that time.

A large, new station has been erected right on the plan, and 1,400 feet of the main approach thereto is sowered and macadamized, and all other streets graded and trees planted.

A natural gas main is now being laid to Rennerdale and the Chartiers Valley Water Co. have made surveys for water main through to McDonald.

The charter and rights of way through Rennerdale for street car line have been secured by the Carnegie & McDonald Street Railway Co., which will connect with Pittsburgh lines.

A school house and a dozen or more fine dwellings have been erected and the owners are enjoying all the advantages of the country and city combined.

Choice Sewickley frontage, 12 miles from Pittsburgh, owned and occupied by city people, is worth $100 per front foot. Rennerdale will some day be worth as much.

Special train will leave Union Depot on Thursday, September 4, at 1:30 p. m., city time. Will stop at Fourth ave. and Birmingham stations. For plans, price lists and tickets, call on or address

BATTLE FIELD IS NOW SHIFTED TO WALL STREET

Gates and Osgood Arrive in New York With Their Colorado Fuel Enmity.

NEXT ACT TO BE IN COURT

Prosperity in Iron and Steel Trade Is Felt by Germany—Pennsylvania Railroad Stocks Taking Front Seat—Situation in Tin.

[BY LEASED WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Aug. 26.—J. C. Osgood, chairman of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, and his bitter enemy, J. W. Gates, arrived in the city this morning from the west. Mr. Osgood came over the New York Central and J. W. Gates over the Pennsylvania. They were not on the same train, as reported in the newspapers this morning. Mr. Osgood talked freely about the affairs of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company. Mr. Gates preserved the utmost silence, simply stating that the courts, not the newspapers, was the place in which to aid the suits involving the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company.

Mr. Osgood issued a statement bearing on the litigation shortly after the close of the stock exchange, and later granted an interview to the newspaper men. He denied that negotiations looking to a settlement of the controversy had been entered into, adding that he had not conferred with a single member of the so-called Gates party since his arrival in New York. Concerning the report that an attempt would be made to strike from the stock exchange the stock of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, he said:

"We will do all in our power to comply with the rules of the New York stock exchange. I do not believe that the laws of Colorado and the New York stock exchange conflict to an extent that would result in the elimination of Colorado Fuel and Iron stock from the list. The present management does not propose to do anything to injure the owners of the property. We are not in the fight for that purpose."

"What about the report that the Gates people propose to apply for a receiver?" was asked.

"I am not a lawyer," replied Mr. Osgood, "but I can't see on what grounds a receiver could be applied for. I certainly would not apply for a receiver, and I believe Mr. Gates would hesitate a long time before taking any action in that respect.

"As to dividends, it is not likely that they will be resumed until the company begins to receive the benefits of the additions and improvements now under way. These additions have greatly hampered the operations of the company, and the earnings have been cut down in consequence. If we resumed dividends at the present time, we would have to draw on our surplus to pay them. We passed the dividend because we know we were acting in the interests of the stockholders."

Consumption of Tin Plate.

It is figured that the present consumption of tin plate is equivalent to the maximum production of the various mills of the country for nine months out of 12. In other words, a foreign source of outlet must be found in order to keep the plants in steady operation. A tin plate manufacturer today said that should the workmen agree to accept a reduction in order to enable the mills to secure foreign business, work the year round would be guaranteed. One of the largest tin plate concerns which has been forced to close its mills temporarily, is suffering no loss to speak of as a result of the shut down, for the simple reason that it is working into finished steel for which there is a demand for material that otherwise would have entered into the manufacture of tin plate. The same policy is being followed by the United States Steel Corporation.

Notwithstanding the fact that a number of tin plate mills of the country are idle, the consumption of tin plate is as large as it ever was. The apparent weakness of the situation can be traced to increased production; not to lack of demand.

Prosperity Helps Germany.

The prosperity of the iron and steel industries in this country is being reflected very strongly in Germany. The demand on the part of the American consumers for foreign iron is more pronounced at present time than in years past. Imports of iron from Europe to the United States have done more than anything else to convince foreigners that the prosperity America is now enjoying is of a gilt edged character.

Boom in Pennsylvania.

A wave of bullish enthusiasm is passing over the street on Pennsylvania. It is predicted that this stock will play a more prominent part in the dealings of the future than it has in the past. The physical condition of the eastern lines are stated to be superb, while that of the western lines and controlled properties are claimed to be the equal of any other road in the country similarly situated in regard to traffic requirements. The advance in Baltimore & Ohio is pointed to as indicating appreciation of the value of one of the controlled properties, while other examples are furnished by the strength in Norfolk & Western and Chesapeake & Ohio. It is also said that the floating supply of stock, which has heretofore been the great handicap of bulling the stock, has been considerably reduced.

Locomotive Company Busy.

The annual report of the American Locomotive Company, which will appear shortly, will show that the company has had a remarkably successful first year. Notwithstanding the fact that the capacity of the principal plants has been substantially increased during the year, the company has had at all times all the business it could handle and has, in fact, been compelled to refuse orders for quick delivery.

Officials of the company are not inclined to make public any details concerning the company's foreign business, probably for the reason that in the railroad equipment industry there is considerable competition for the foreign field. This has, however, been held in check by the enormous volume of home orders. Comparatively little effort is being made to push the introduction of American locomotives and cars abroad. This is especially true in countries where they come in competition with a native manufacturing industry already well developed, as in most of the countries of Europe.

In Mexico, South American countries, South Africa and Japan the proportion of American equipment is increasing more rapidly than any where else. It is said by officials of various car and locomotive companies that the reports of equipment orders which are circulated in the Wall street prints are unreliable, for the reason that each order is made to appear several times. This is due to the fact that information of the orders reaches the public successively through several different channels. The companies manufacturing the equipment do not make public their orders. A considerable time elapses between the placing of the order and the agreement of the mechanical department of the purchasing railroad with the designers of the constructing company upon all the details of the work, and still more time before the order is finally executed. During these periods the same order is likely to be mentioned in the technical journals and discussed by railroad men any number of times. In the absence of official information there is no reliable way of checking the figures.

Violent Trading in Wall Street Yesterday

ACTIVE MARKET YIELDED UNDER PROFIT-TAKING

The Volume of Dealings in Stocks Rose Over the Million Mark.

PRICES FELL VIOLENTLY

Net Gains Were Realized Only in Few Instances—Large Operators Have Some Solicitude About the Interior Demand for Currency.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Aug. 26.—The volume of dealings in stocks rose well over 1,000,000 shares today. The market showed great animation at different times during the day and gave an impression of strength, owing to the enormous buying on an upward range of a few stocks, but the speculative profit taking under cover of this strength was persistent and widespread. The market became so honeycombed by the closing out of holdings by powerful speculative interests that it showed a decidedly crumbling tendency in the closing hour.

Prices fell back rather violently to below last night and in only one or two instances was any appreciable net gain left. There was no reason to accompany the relapse any more than there was to account for the previous notable advances.

There was no more solicitude over the money market today than has been expressed by warning cautions for some time and especially since the market took on the present proportions of the speculation.

Influenced by Money Market.

It is highly probable, nevertheless, that the large operators in stock are alive to the possibilities of money difficulties and are desirous of making their successful turn before actual stringency sets in.

As a matter of fact, there were no further transfers of currency today to the interior through the sub-treasury and loan bills were quite freely negotiated in the foreign exchange market. But discussion is already heard of next Saturday's bank statement and ways and means for relief of the money market by the intervention of United States treasury authorities are already canvassed, without throwing clear light on the course to be pursued.

The secretary of the treasury rescinded the standing order of his predecessor for the purchase of government bonds in the market at a fixed price and he is reported to have determined not to renew this method of releasing surplus government funds to the market.

Increase of government deposits with the banks would require increased holding of government bonds as security and the recent persistent advance in government bond quotations is supposed to reflect preparations by bankers to this end, but the scanty floating supply of government bonds makes such a demand quickly effective in lifting prices to a point which wipes out the profit both on banking circulation and on the holding of government deposits.

Large Railroad Dealings.

There was nothing in the ruling rate of money, which fell to 3½ per cent, to indicate solicitude on the part of speculators. The leader of the market in point of strength was assumed by Atchison, the argument being that the higher price recently achieved by other stocks warranted an advance in that stock. Meantime, the higher prices for other stocks were inviting the enormous speculative liquidation which finally broke the market.

Dealings continued very large in Union Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio and Southern Pacific, but they all yielded sharply to the prevalent profit-taking. There was rather more doing in other parts of the market yesterday, but the congestion in the traders was still acute and there were large portions of the list in which the dealings were quite insignificant, especially the industrials, which were affected possibly by the forcible sentiment for their regulation expressed by the president. The market closed heavy, although at some recovery from the lowest.

The principal activity in the bond market was in the Union Pacific convertible issues. Total sales par value, $4,830,000. United States old 4s advanced ½ and the 2s, 3s and 5s ¼ per cent on the last call.

Talked About in Wall Street

[BY LEASED WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Herald this (Wednesday) morning says:

After a whirl of activity in the stock market yesterday, during which over 500,000 shares were bought and sold in the first hour of business, there was a marked curtailment in the volume of dealings, subsequently followed by a reaction, which left prices below the closing figures of the previous day. The main impression left in the minds of close observers at the close of business was that a great amount of solid profit-taking had occurred during the day, and that this very desirable policy was followed when the up-bidding was at its height.

The course of events in the first hour were pleasant enough to brokers. Business was brisker than in many months, and inquiries concerning money rates elicited the information that they were, if anything, slightly easier than on Monday. "This is much different than a 'Gates market,'" was heard occasionally, for it was pointed out that the volume of business was unusually large, and there was a broadening tendency noticeable. Some of the specialties, however, from which better results were expected, lagged a bit, and it seemed as if there was plenty of stock for sale.

Atchison led the market in the volume of business, more than 205,000 shares changing hands. As was the case with Union Pacific on Monday, the transactions started off in huge blocks. The tape recorded sales of thousands of shares, stretching out as in the old days, when 2,000,000 a day was the average total. The tip was widely circulated that the Berwind pool was about to become active once more, and traders left the Southern Pacific post to assist in the movement.

Union Pacific, St. Paul, Baltimore & Ohio, Southern Pacific and Pennsylvania moved along practically the same lines. After the early buoyancy, in which high record prices were established, the market for these high-class favorites displayed very positive evidences of heavy realizing sales. Traders discovered that there was plenty of stocks for sale and the commission houses simply withdrew. The demand having been supplied, lower prices were made, in the course of which the substantial gains made earlier in the day were wiped out. In numerous instances the closing quotations were fractionally under those of Monday.

Will Build Reservoir.

The Westinghouse Electrical Manufacturing company yesterday purchased from W. L. Mellon nine acres of land in Fall hollow, Wilkins township, for $5,000. The land is about a mile above East Pittsburgh and will be used as reservoir to supply water to the works at East Pittsburgh. The improvements will cost about $25,000.

Stock Dealer Kills Himself.

WASHINGTON, PA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—A. H. Dunn, aged 50, a prominent stock dealer at Dunn's station, this county, committed suicide this evening by swallowing an ounce of carbolic acid. Dunn has been in ill health for several months. He is survived by his widow and one son, Clarence, who is in business in Pittsburgh.

Improvement Plan Defeated.

ROCHESTER, PA., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—A proposition to increase the borough indebtedness $50,000 for sewering and paving streets was voted on here today and was overwhelmingly defeated.

NEWS FROM THE MINES

[BY LEASED WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—A Pittsburgh syndicate is reported to have bought the Balaklala copper claims in Shasta county, Cal., for $650,000. Before the deal went through the syndicate spent $100,000 in prospecting the ground with diamond drills, and the natural presumption is that the borings, which extended over a year, were eminently satisfactory. The Balaklala adjoins the property of the Mountain Copper Company, which has yielded several millions of dollars during the past five years. It is reported that the new owners will erect a 2,000-ton smelting plant.

The main ledge of the Oro Blanco near Silver Peak, Nev., is about 10 feet wide and the ore runs from 60 to 900 ounces of silver and $4 to $12 gold per ton.

Another fine strike is reported in Nevada in the Pyramid district, Washoe county, a four-foot vein has been uncovered that shows $100 gold and 77 ounces silver to the ton.

Eric Lindbloom, one of the discoverers of Nome, reports a small but rich vein of quartz uncovered on a claim of the Pioneer Mining Company of Nome. A shaft is being sunk and a thorough exploration of the lead will be made.

John A. Drake and associates of Chicago have bought the Great Northern mines and mills at Gilt Edge, Mont. The price was $1,000,000.

The management of the Wabash, at Park City, Utah, has uncovered five feet of rich ore in the Northwest drift on the 300-foot level. Another 300 ore has been exposed in the Dominion at Tankee, Col., at a depth of 10 feet. The claim belongs to Postmaster Waugh, who recently struck $370 ore in the Little Badger.

At a depth of 175 feet in the Colorado-Nevada, at Wedeking, Nev., the rock has changed to a gray sulphide and chloride ore, which promises to yield big values, some claiming as high as $2,000 to the ton.

The Doans-Verde at Grand Encampment, Wyo., has opened an eight-foot vein of gossan in a 25-foot shaft on the Rendeacott claim. The ore is rich in silver and decomposed, while the solid portions show values in copper axides.

A 10-inch streak of lead, brittle silver and carbonates has been opened up on a new claim near Silverton, Col., belonging to Wesley & Jordan of Ouray.

The Metal Market.

About the only noteworthy feature in domestic metal markets today was the rather sharp decline in tin, amounting to 25 points, whereas the English market was steadier and reported a net advance for the day of 5s, closing spot at £125 5s and futures £121 10s. Spot here closed at $27 80@28 20 and weak. It is reported that the advance last week was due to manipulation and could not be sustained under existing conditions here and abroad. In copper there was not much doing, and price ranges were narrow. Standard spot closed at $10 80@11 20; Lake Superior, $11 50@11 65; electrolytic, $11 30@11 45, and casting, at $11 30@11 45. London eased off 1s 3d, making final quotations on spot £51 11s 3d and on futures £51 18s 9d. There was no change in the lead situation, spots in the local market being held at 4¼c and at London at £11 2s 6d. A moderate demand for spelter in the domestic market sustained prices steadily, with spot at $5 50. The English market was unchanged at £19. No changes were noted in iron on this side. Warrants are still nominal. No. 1 foundry southern was quoted at $22 00@25 00; No. 2 foundry northern, $22 00@23 00; No. 1 foundry southern, soft, $22 00@23 00; No. 1 foundry southern, soft, $22 00@23 00. English markets reported slight declines. Glasgow closed at 57s 6d and Middlesboro at 52s 10½d.

Wheat, Corn and Oats Close Lower

GRAIN MARKET IS WEAKENED BY GOOD WEATHER

Possible Increased Movement Worked the Edge Off of Wheat.

CORN WENT DOWNWARD

Good Crop Reports Influenced the Movement—Oats Were Firm at Start, but Became Weak on Fair Offerings—Provisions Irregular.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago, Aug. 26.—All markets had a downward trend today. Fine weather in the northwest where the spring wheat harvests are exerting a big influence on world prices and the possibility of increased movement worked the edge off wheat. Corn seemed to have been over bought on the fear of scarcity for near contracts. Good crop reports did the rest, and sympathy influenced down turns in other pits. At the close September wheat was ⅝@¾c lower, September corn 1¼c off, and September oats ⅝c down. Provisions closed 7½c up to 5c down.

Trade in wheat was a dull, lagging affair for some time. There were occasional spurts of activity, but in general the traders simply allowed prices to slip away gradually on the influence of the northwestern markets. There had been fair weather in the spring country for 24 hours and predictions were for a continuation of the favorable conditions.

Cables were indifferent, weather being fine both in England and France and the spot demand disappointing. Cool weather northwest, together with poor grading here and lighter receipts of wheat probably was the reason why there was no heavy selling pressure in wheat.

Limited Demand for Corn.

Cash stuff northwest was as much as 1½c lower and the demand was slow. Minneapolis and Duluth were not getting much wheat, but there were prospects of an increased movement. September here started a shade to ⅛@¼c lower at 72⅝c to 72¾c and slowly fell off to 71¾c, closing weak, ⅝@¾c lower at 71⅞c.

Local receipts were 477 cars, 1 of contract grade; Minneapolis and Duluth reported 282 cars, making a total for the three points of 759 cars, against 572 last week and 1,603 a year ago. Primary receipts were 1,193,000 bushels, compared with 1,251,000 bushels a year ago. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour equaled 270,000 bushels. The world's visible supply decreased 1,903,000 bushels.

There was a limited demand early for September on the influence of higher cables and poor local grading. Stocks were falling off. Rains also

Local Stocks Were Again Quite Active and Generally Firmer

CRUCIBLE STEEL COMMON FIRM AT AN ADVANCE

The Westinghouse Electric Seconds Were Strong at Higher Prices.

PITTSBURGH COALS FIRM

The Common Stock Sold Nearly 1,300 Shares—Fire Proofing Issues Were Firmer—Pittsburgh Brewing Shares Higher.

The market on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday was again quite active and generally firmer throughout the list. The sales amounted to nearly 6,600 shares and would probably have been larger but for the fact that the members, out of respect for the late John T. Patterson, a charter member of the exchange, voted to adjourn at 2:30 p. m., thus cutting off the last half hour of the session. It was a high honor to the memory of Mr. Patterson, who was universally beloved, and the vote was unanimous. In the selling the chief activity was in Crucible Steel common, which sold over 2,100 shares and advanced to and closed strong at 23¾, a gain of ⅝ for the day. The preferred sold 500 shares at 86¾@87 and closed at 86¾, a loss of ⅛. The stock, however, was firm. The selling of the common was principally by a firm which the gossips say has heretofore been a large buyer, along with others, for a prominent financier and steel magnate. There is a belief that the stock will before long be placed upon a regular dividend basis. It is known that a director of the company has stated that this would probably be done because, said he: "The company is making so much money that we are getting ashamed to look the stockholders in the face." However, the well known conservative principals of the management may prevent such a step. Westinghouse Electric seconds advanced to 112¼ and closed at 111¾. Crucible Steel common closed at 23¾. Sales 2,110 shares. Sales Crucible Steel preferred 500 shares. Closed 86¾. 1,295 Pittsburgh Coal common sold. Closed 23⅝. Pittsburgh Coal preferred closed 90⅝. Pittsburgh Brewing common closed 30¼. Pittsburgh Brewing preferred closed at 48⅝, a gain of 1⅞. Window Glass common closed at 62¾.

The cancellation of these bonds leaves Oil City with an indebtedness of only $31,000. Wall Street Brokers' "Tips."

Erie looks a buy.

I think they are going to put Atchison above par.

I think Atchison and Erie are the cards at present.

The pool in Tennessee Coal and Iron is predicting a sharp rise.

Illinois Central looks like going higher. The Gates crowd very bullish on it.

I believe the move in Union Pacific is only beginning, and that it will sell much higher.

This new activity in the Gould stocks ought to mean higher prices for the Wabash shares.

I understand the bulls are not looking for opposing the advance in Union Pacific. The fact that they seem to have changed their policy on Southern Pacific and that a dividend is to be declared on that stock this year issued as a big bull card on Union Pacific, as it owns $90,000,000 of Southern Pacific stock.

The Pacifics, Trunk Lines, soft coalers, Peoples Gas and Erie will sell well above their present level of prices. Do not become too bearish on Colorado Fuel and Iron. Remember this company's Executive Steering Committee was willing to buy Colorado Fuel and Iron stock at $125 a few months ago and the plant is as valuable today as it ever was. Keep your eye on Missouri, Kansas and Texas preferred. Union Pacific convertible 4s, Oregon Short Line 4s, Baltimore & Ohio, Southern Pacific, New York Central and Eries are going higher. Keep on the lookout for Amalgamated District Telegraph and Commercial Cable.—Josephs.

That the secretary of the treasury stands ready, if a tariff bill is not passed, to increase the government money in national banks, is a most welcome piece of news to Wall street. His attitude on the bond repurchase question, looking to the same end, any hopes to have been entertained that he would resume the scaling loan of the national debt, which was a prominent feature of his predecessor's policy in aiding the money market. Secretary Shaw adds that the government deposits could be increased to the extent of $20,000,000 or more, and that the possibility of a tariff bill being thrown down by the senate. Stocks are held by strong people, and if money rates remains as they are the belief is that the market will go much higher, yet a reaction is probable and undoubtedly will come some time before Saturday when accounts will be evened up for the three holidays.—Loungberry.

Fruits and Produce.

As forecasted in this column, tomatoes took another tumble yesterday owing to heavier receipts. Tomatoes are ripening better under the warmer weather conditions of the past few days. There was, however, a fair demand yesterday for the goods, preservers buying them in large quantities. Peaches are also looking better than they did a week ago, and some very fair stock was offered for sale yesterday. The best Rocky Ford cantaloupes are bringing $2 75 a crate, which is a slight reduction over the best price quoted Monday. Horse Market.

There is nothing in the way of new features in the horse market this week, either in the matter of arrivals or sales. The demand is still principally for draught horses, and those of desirable grade which reach the city find a market at good prices.

At the Tuesday auction sale yesterday over 100 horses of all kinds were disposed of at about the same prices that have been ruling for several weeks.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Coffee—Futures opened steady, with 5 points advance. From the start the session was one of profit taking by the local profession, but with enough private speculative buying and European demand on hand to almost offset the realizing movement. With one or two exceptions, private advices received from the crop country were bullish as ever, primary markets were steady to firm and interior sentiment was strongly arrayed on the bull side. Wall street was the leader of the selling, with both importers and the bull leaders offering late months. The latter sought nearby positions. The market was finally steady, with prices net 10 to 15 points lower. Sales amounted to 109,000 bags, including August, 5.40@5.45c; September, 5.40@5.45c; October, 5.40@5.45c; November, 5.50@5.55c; December, 5.60@5.65c; March, 5.75@5.80c; May, 5.80@5.90c; July, 6.00@6.10c.

THIRTEEN WORDS FORM WILLIAM BLACK'S WILL

In This Concise Manner He Leaves a Small Estate to His Wife.

GRANDSON MUST BE GOOD

Samuel Donley Leaves $1,000 to Earl Donley, Providing the Testator's Daughter Finds His Character Is Exemplary--Other Estates.

Wills of an unusual character were filed for probate in the register's office yesterday. That of William Black, late of this city, was extremely concise. It read: "To Mary Black, my wife, I leave all my estate and personal belonging." The estate is valued at $1,000.

The will of Samuel Donley, late of Elizabeth, disposes of an estate worth $2,000. A daughter, Belinda, is given $1,000. She is also to hold $1,000 in trust for the testator's grandson, Earl, providing that, "Upon investigation by my daughter, Belinda, said Earl is found to be of good character and good conduct. If, however, said Earl is of dissolute habits, the said $1,000 shall go to the portion of said Belinda, my daughter." To the testator's son, Mark Donley, is left $5 and a gold watch. The residue goes to Belinda.

By the will of Margaret D. Rees, late of Pittsburgh, an estate worth $7,500 is left to her husband, Daniel R. Rees. Attorney John A. Wilson represents the estate.

Louisa M. Johnson, late of Braddock, left a $1,250 estate to her husband.

Samuel Malwood, late of Pittsburgh, left $100 to Mrs. Annie Crow and the balance of a $3,618 estate to William J. Crow, a son.

CONVICTIONS WERE FEW.

Charges Were Numerous But Proof Was Furnished in Only One Burglary Case.

The report of Clerk of Courts George W. Miller, of the June session of criminal court, has been compiled for the benefit of the state. It shows very few convictions for burglary, robbery and murder, in comparison with the number of those crimes committed in Allegheny county.

No person was convicted of first degree murder. One was convicted of second degree murder and two of involuntary manslaughter. One was convicted of burglary and one pleaded guilty to robbery.

The report shows that 489 persons were charged with crime. Six were convicted of assault and battery with intent to kill; five with assault to commit felony; 10 for desertion; one for gambling. There were also numerous convictions for minor offenses. The report shows that 68 entered pleas of guilty to the charges against them.

WANT TITLE CLEARED.

Redemptorist Fathers Say Description of Their Property Is Confusing.

A case stated was filed yesterday in common pleas court No. 2 by the Redemptorist Fathers against James B. Lawler to clear the title of property in Allegheny, described in an original deed to be situated "opposite Pittsburgh." The property, in the Eighteenth ward, consists of two acres and was deeded to Rev. Francis Joseph Muller and others in November, 1862, and later transferred to the plaintiffs.

It is set forth that in June, 1902, Lawler agreed to purchase a portion of it for $10,000, but he now refuses to carry this out, claiming the title is not clear.

Firm Charged With Contempt.

An order was made in the United States circuit court by Judge Acheson, for a rule on S. Rothman & Son of Pittsburgh, directing the firm to show cause why it should not be attached for contempt of court. On December 31, 1901, an injunction was issued in the case of Abraham Gershon against S. Rothman & Son restraining the latter from using the trade mark, "Gold Medallion," or otherwise imitating a cigaret package of the plaintiff. It is alleged the defendant continues to use a label that is an infringement of the plaintiff's rights. The rule is returnable on September 23.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

An order was made in the United States circuit court for an extension of time for filing affidavits of defense in the case of the Harry Hollis Tobacco Company against James S. Sansom for alleged infringement on patent rights. The defendant is allowed until October 1.

George Andrews entered suit against the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Company for $10,000 damages for personal injuries. While working for the company, the plaintiff says, he was badly burned by acid, which caused him to lose the sight of his right eye.

The following executions were issued yesterday: Joseph Argus vs. Bridget O'Callaghan, $33 50; Charles Semmens, for use of E. J. Small vs. Barton A. Boor, $307 49; Pittsburgh Insurance Company vs. James W. Thompson, $28,000; J. Winter & Bros. vs. Michael R. Coffin, $800.

A statement was filed in the case of Edward Aisbitt against the West Side Belt Railroad Company for $10,000 damages. The plaintiff, who is an expressman, claims the company constructed a bridge over a ravine on his property in Lower St. Clair township, which leaves him without ingress or egress to his stables.

C. V. Reid entered suit against W. R. Scott for $1,000. The plaintiff, a broker, says the defendant placed 250 shares of the Sterrett-Thomson Foundry Company of Pittsburgh in his hands for sale, and that he secured a purchaser for 200 shares, but that the defendant refused to sell unless all was sold. Reid claims the sum asked as his commission.

WILL LEAVE THE B. & O.

W. S. Haines Has Resigned as Superintendent of Motive Power at Pittsburgh.

W. S. Haines yesterday announced his resignation as superintendent of motive power of the Baltimore & Ohio at Pittsburgh. The announcement was a surprise to local railroad men, for Mr. Haines took charge of the Pittsburgh office less than three months ago. He had held the same title at Newark, O., but under the new arrangement of the lines of the system he was given Pittsburgh headquarters and had authority over all the lines under the jurisdiction of General Superintendent L. G. Haas of Pittsburgh as well as the Chicago division. There are over 800 engines in the territory.

The resignation is effective September 1. His successor is not yet named, but it is rumored that C. F. McDermott, now master mechanic at the Garrett, Ind., shops of the system, will be given the position. Mr. Haines stated yesterday that he wishes to take a rest for the present. He has been with the Baltimore & Ohio for three years, coming with the road from the "Soo Line," from which F. D. Underwood, formerly general manager of the Baltimore & Ohio, also came. With this as a basis it has been believed in some quarters that he will go with the Erie, of which Mr. Underwood is now president, but he denied yesterday that he had made such an arrangement.

On September 1 F. S. Rogers, chief train dispatcher at Pittsburgh, will also leave the Baltimore & Ohio to go in the same capacity with the Rock Island at Des Moines, Ia. He will be succeeded here by P. S. Rhodes, now division operator of the Erie & Ashtabula division of the Pennsylvania lines at New Castle. Mr. Rhodes in turn will be succeeded at New Castle by Joseph T. Moore of the operating offices of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania at Wellsville. The last vacancy will be filled by promotion in that office. Mr. Rogers came with the Baltimore & Ohio about a year ago from the Missouri Pacific in Kansas.

Queen Expects Stork.

ROME, Aug. 26.—The court circular today announces an expected visit of the stork to Queen Helena in December.
